Germany Surrenders, 1945 ,198?    World War II Documents Various,2015-12-02 Every year the West celebrates Victory in Europe Day V E Day or VE Day commemorated on May 8 1945 as the date when the World War II Allies formally accepted the unconditional surrender of the armed forces of Nazi Germany and the end of Adolf Hitler's Third Reich. The formal surrender of the occupying German forces in the Channel Islands was not until May 9 1945 10 days earlier Hitler committed suicide during the Battle of Berlin and so the surrender of Germany was authorized by his replacement President of Germany Karl Dömitz. The administration headed by Dömitz was known as the Flensburg government. The act of military surrender was signed on 7 May in Reims France and ratified on 8 May in Berlin Germany. This collection of historic World War II documents includes all of the surrender documents signed on behalf of the Germans in late April and May 1945 ending the war in Europe and setting off wild celebrations across the globe. The Myth of the Good War Jacques R. Pauwels, 2015-03-06. In the spirit of historians Howard Zinn Gwynne Dyer and Noam Chomsky Jacques Pauwels focuses on the big picture. Like them he seeks to find the real reasons for the actions of great powers and great leaders. Familiar Second World War figures from Adolf Hitler to Franklin D Roosevelt and Joseph Stalin are portrayed in a new light in this book. The decisions of Hitler and his Nazi government to go to war were not those of madmen. Britain and the US were not allies fighting shoulder to shoulder with no motive except ridding the world of the evils of Nazism. In Pauwels account the actions of the United States during the war years were heavily influenced by American corporations IBM GM Ford ITT and Standard Oil of New Jersey now called Exxon who were having a very profitable war selling oil armaments and equipment to both sides with money gushing everywhere. Rather than analyzing Pearl Harbor as an unprovoked attack Pauwels notes that US generals boasted of their success in goading Japan into a war the Americans badly wanted. One chilling account describes why President Truman insisted on using nuclear bombs against Japan when there was no military need to do so. Another reveals that Churchill instructed his bombers to flatten Dresden and kill thousands when the war was already won to demonstrate British American strength to Stalin. Leaders usually cast in a heroic mould in other books about this war look quite different here. Nations that claimed a higher purpose in going to war are shown to have had far less idealistic motives. The Second World War as Jacques Pauwels tells it was a good war only in myth. The reality is far messier and far more revealing of the evils that come from conflicts between great powers and great leaders seeking to enrich their countries and dominate the world.
