The Political Philosophy of Sri Aurobindo Vishwanath Prasad Varma, 1990-01-01 The Lives of Sri Aurobindo Peter Heehs, 2008-05-19 Since his death in 1950 Sri Aurobindo Ghose has been known primarily as a yogi and a philosopher of spiritual evolution who was nominated for the Nobel Prize in peace and literature But the years Aurobindo spent in yogic retirement were preceded by nearly four decades of rich public and intellectual work Biographers usually focus solely on Aurobindo s life as a politician or sage but he was also a scholar a revolutionary a poet a philosopher a social and cultural theorist and the inspiration for an experiment in communal living Peter Heehs one of the founders of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Archives is the first to relate all the aspects of Aurobindo s life in its entirety Consulting rare primary sources Heehs describes the leader s role in the freedom movement and in the framing of modern Indian spirituality He examines the thinker s literary cultural and sociological writings and the Sanskrit Bengali English and French literature that influenced them and he finds the foundations of Aurobindo s yoga practice in his diaries and unpublished letters Heehs s biography is a sensitive honest portrait of a life that also provides surprising insights into twentieth century Indian history Sri Aurobindo and Karl Marx Debi Prasad Chattopadhyaya, 1988-01-01 Karl Marx and Sri aurobindo with whose ideas this book is mainly concerned through belong to two different cultures and ages the affinity of their chosen themes is very instructive This book will be of interest to social scientists philosophers and the reading public Sri Aurobindo and the Mother Kireet Joshi, 1989-01-01 Aryadeva s Catuhsataka along with the work of Nagarjuna provided the philosophical basis for much of subsequent Mahayana Buddhism Like Nagarjuna s Mulamadhyamakakarikas it too was commented upon by Vijnanavada or Idealist thinkers as well as by those of the Madhyamaka or Middle Way school Thus the Catuhsataka was interpreted in very different and yet philosophically rich fashioned by its sixth century commentators Dharmapala and Candrakirti the former saw it as only refuting ascriptions of imagined natures parikalpitasvabhava to phenomena while leaving real natures untouched the latter interpreted Aryadeva s work as a thorough going rejection of all real intrinsic natures svabhava whatsoever Tom Tillemans in this reprint of his 1990 doctoral thesis takes up the key themes in Dharmapala s and Candrakirti s philosophies and translates two chapters from their respective works on Catuhsataka Both commentaries had a strong influence on subsequent Buddhism Candrakirti s was important for Tibetan developments Dharmapala s played a formative role in the increasingly marked differentiation between Vijnanavada and Madhyamaka philosophies Sri Aurobindo Sachidananda Mohanty, 2012-04-27 This book compiles some of the finest writings of Sri Aurobindo 1872 1950 the nationalist visionary poet philosopher It reflects the range depth and outreach of the moral intellectual and spiritual vision of this versatile and multifaceted genius It aims at providing at one place access to the key concepts tenets and the spirit of the extraordinary range of texts authored by him Although concretely grounded in contemporary times with its location in a specific socio cultural matrix this work projects a body of writings that is certain to have lasting value In particular the compilation brings forth Sri Aurobindo's social vision and his role as a cultural critic his views on ethnicity his exposition of the key role language plays in the formation of communitarian identities his crucial understanding of self determination which has incidentally become an important aspect of human rights discourse today Situating the writings in a specific intellectual spiritual and historical context this collection will enable readers to appreciate the overall vision of Sri Aurobindo in what can be conceived as a caravan of history of ideas in terms of a common heritage of humankind and recent developments in theory and disciplinary practice especially those pertaining to consciousness and future studies

The Essential Aurobindo Sri Aurobindo, 2001 Who wrote the Gospel of John The author identifies himself only as the disciple whom Jesus loved and Christian tradition tells us that this disciple was the apostle John However during the past century scholars have increasingly come to doubt that attribution In 1902 Rudolf Steiner wrote that the author of the Gospel of John was in fact Lazarus Steiner's position stemmed from his insight that Lazarus's encounter with death involved far more than people realized an initiation into higher spiritual realities that uniquely qualified him to write this gospel Edward Smith takes up this argument and shows that subsequent research has tended to favor Lazarus for reasons grounded in John's Gospel itself More important Smith shows that subsequent discoveries at Nag Hammadi and Mar Saba corroborate Steiner's reasoning about the nature of the raising of Lazarus pointing to Lazarus as the rich young ruler of Mark's Gospel
