the Novels of Alan Hollinghurst Mark Mathuray,2017-05-26 Winner of the British Association for Contemporary Literary

Studies BACLS 2017 Edited Collection Prize This book is a challenging and engaging collection of original essays on the novels of Alan Hollinghurst Britain s foremost gay writer and the English novel s master stylist The essays engage the precarious and shifting relationship between sex and literary sensibility in his novels and thus also attempt to establish the parameters of a new critical discourse for future research on Hollinghurst s novel queer theory and the contemporary literary representations of masculinity and sexuality By coupling the consideration of Hollinghurst s aesthetics his sensuously evocative style to an interrogation of the social political and sexual currents in his texts the contributors of this collection provide distinctive interpretations of Hollinghurst s novels from Hollinghurst s uncovering of a gay artistic heritage to his re signification of earlier English literary styles from his engagement with the Symbolist fin de si cle to his critique of aestheticism etc whilst paying close attention to the formally innovative qualities of his texts    The Ruling Passion

Christopher Lane,1995 In The Ruling Passion Christopher Lane examines the relationship between masculinity homosexual desire and empire in British colonialist and imperialist fictions at the turn of the twentieth century Questioning the popular assumption that Britain s empire functioned with symbolic efficiency on sublimated desire this book presents a counterhistory of the empire s many layers of conflict and ambivalence Through attentive readings of sexual and political allegory in the work of Kipling Forster James Beerbohm Firbank and others and deft use of psychoanalytic theory The Ruling Passion interprets turbulent scenes of masculine identification and pleasure power and mastery intimacy and antagonism By foregrounding the shattering effects of male homosexuality and interracial desire and by insisting on the centrality of unconscious fantasy and the death drive The Ruling Passion examines the startling recurrence of colonial failure in narratives of symbolic doubt and ontological crisis Lane argues compellingly that Britain can progress culturally and politically only when it has relinquished its residual fantasies of global mastery    Complete Plays Ronald Firbank,1994 Complementing

Dalkey Archive s edition of Firbank s Complete Short Stories published in 1990 Complete Plays makes available for the first time in one volume this inimitable British writer s three excursions into drama The Mauve Tower 1904 a dream play reminiscent in language and setting of Oscar Wilde s Salome and the writings of the French symbolists A Disciple from the Country 1907 a one act comedy about a debutante who flirts with religion and sainthood in order to catch a husband and The Princess Zoubaroff 1920 a three act comedy about marriage religion and homosexual separation The latter which has been produced in England occasionally since the 1950s is considered to be among Firbank's major works and yet it like the other two plays has not been generally available in this country until now The plays are filled with the wit and satire for which Firbank's novels are relished indeed Firbank's novels relied so heavily on dialogue that the distinction between them and his plays is minimal Consequently those who enjoy his novels and stories as well as those who enjoy the comic British theater tradition of Pinero Wilde and Coward should welcome this collection Steven Moore who edited the Complete Short Stories has written an introduction placing the plays in the context of Firbank's life     The Complete Plays Joe Orton, 1977
