Evans, 1992 In this the first full scale black systematic theology in twenty years James Evans emerges as a major and distinctive voice in American theology Seeking to overcome the chasm between church practice and theological reflection Evans situates theology squarely in the nexus of faith with freedom There with a sure touch he uplifts revelatory aspects of black religious experience that reanimate classical areas of theology and he creates a theology with a heart a soul and a voice that speaks directly to our condition

A Critical Examination of NeoMarxist and Postmodernist Theories as Applied to Education Tova Yaakoby,    Speculations on Black Life Darrell Jones, Monifa Love, Anthony B. Pinn, 2023-05-18 Is God a white racist Posed by William R Jones in his ground breaking book of the same name this question disrupted the theological assumptions that marked Black religious thought from early writings of the 1800s to the formation of Black theology in the 1960s This book compiles his key and essential writings related to over three decades of critical reflection on race religion secularism and oppression in the United States Over the course of 30 years Jones pushed questions and considerations that refined Black theology and that gave greater shape to and understanding of Black philosophers intervention into issues of racial and structural inequality His philosophical work related to the grid of oppression fosters an approach to the nature and meaning of oppression in the United States encouraging rational interrogation of structures of injustice and thought patterns supporting those structures Still relevant today the straightforward style of communication used by Jones makes these essays easily accessible to a popular audience while maintaining intellectual rigor making the book also suitable for an academy based audience

The Electrician, 1899    Space and Place as a Topic for Public Theologies LIT Verlag, 2022-08-09 Public theologies reflect on the contextuality of the Christian religion Much of this contextuality is dependent on place place as the culture and the society in which religions are situated place as the position from where a theologian speaks place as the biographical contingencies that shape people's lives Moreover public theologies ask for the contribution of Christian ethics to society thereby shaping the social cultural and religious space to which they belong The contributions in this volume analyse the categories of space and place in order to deepen the understanding of contextuality thereby taking up some of the challenges presented by the so called spatial turn Dr Thomas Wabel is Professor of Protestant Theology Systematic Theology at the University of Bamberg Dr Katharina Eberlein Braun is Assistant Professor of Protestant Theology Systematic Theology at the University of Bamberg Torben Stamer is vicar of the Protestant Church of Northern Germany in Ludwigslust

Non-combatant Immunity as a Norma of International Humanitarian Law Judith Gail Gardam, 1993-04-08 Despite the advances made by the international community to outlaw the resort to force by the United Nations Charter armed conflicts both international and non international are a fact of every day life The civilian casualties from such conflicts have assumed catastrophic proportions Little attention however has been paid by scholars to the treatment of noncombatants in armed conflict and the place in international law of the principle fundamental to the law of armed conflict noncombatant immunity This work aims to remedy this omission The author analyses in detail the content of the customary and conventional rules that give effect to this principle in both international and non international armed conflict The importance of such a study is highlighted by the recent Gulf conflict where so many of the States were not bound by the most recent treaty rules protecting noncombatants
