The Analyst's Analyst Within Lora H. Tessman,2013-02-01 The Analyst's Analyst Within is the most illuminating study to date of how psychoanalysts experiences with their own analysts affect their lives their loves and their evolving professional identities A gifted interviewer with equally gifted interview subjects Tessman samples different gender combinations and age ranges in showing how the values typifying different eras of psychoanalytic theorizing enter into the meaning and impact of training analyses Tessman's findings are striking and they do not end with her discovery of startling differences according to the decade during which a training analysis took place She also found that neither the theoretical orientation of the training analyst nor his or her technical preferences predicted whether years later the analysis would be remembered as satisfying or dissatisfying as growth promoting or thwarting Rather it was the quality of affective engagement that became reliably present with the figure of the training analyst inscribed in all his or her particularity accounting for the perceived sense of a truly productive analytic experience Tessman's research program which encompasses her methodology her skill as an interviewer and the wisdom and clarity of thought of her participants lifts this work well beyond the perfunctory debates about psychoanalytic training that recur in the journal literature The power of The Analyst's Analyst Within resides in compelling individual narratives in which analysts revisit their own treatment past and the analyst within with candor vividness and often great poignancy The result is a book that not only supersedes previous studies of the training analysis but also opens a new vista on how and why analysis works when it works and fails when it fails

The Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1897 British Columbia,1897 The Exploration of Happiness Antonella Delle Fave,2013-03-29 This specially selected collection of landmark work from the Journal of Happiness Studies maps the current contours and the likely future direction of research in a field with a fast rising profile This volume which inaugurates a series aiming to explore discrete topics in happiness and wellbeing studies features selected articles published in the Journal of Happiness Studies during its first decade which culminated in an impact factor in 2011 As the introductory work in the series it provides readers with a vital overview of the prominent issues problems and challenges that well being and happiness research has had to overcome since its appearance on the scientific stage. The journal's very success evinces both the high scientific quality of the research covered and the steadily growing interest in a subject that draws responses from a vast range of epistemological aiming points taking in economics, sociology, psychology, philosophy, education and medicine. The series of volumes following this debut publication will represent a unique contribution to the literature in their multidisciplinary focus on particularized topics. It is reckoned that this will help strengthen cross disciplinary synergies among authors investigating the same topic as well as whet the appetite for happiness research among professionals and experts inhabiting a variety of academic domains. This volume addresses the theory of well being and happiness, the different research approaches now probing their features and components and the socio economic and cultural issues that impact on their promotion.

Subjectivity in Political Economy David P. Levine, 2005-06-23 This book explores the way political economy understands human motivation. In it the author argues that the assumptions typically made by economists regarding want and choice cannot adequately lay a foundation for answering important questions about the design of economic institutions and the appropriate use of markets. This volume offers an exciting and unusual contribution to political economy offering a novel integration of the insights of political economy, philosophy and psychology applying them to vital foundational issues in political economy.

Text, Speech, and Dialogue Petr Sojka, Aleš Horák, Ivan Kopeček, Karel Pala, 2022-09-15 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 25th International Conference on Text Speech and Dialogue TSD 2022 held in Brno, Czech Republic in September 2022. The 43 papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 94 submissions. The topical sections Text, Speech and Dialogue deal with the following issues: speech recognition corpora and language resources, speech and spoken language generation, tagging, classification and parsing of text and speech, semantic processing of text and speech, integrating applications of text and speech processing, automatic dialogue systems, multimodal techniques and modelling.

Pathology of the Capitalist Spirit D. Levine, 2013-04-05 Pathology of the Capitalist Spirit is about capital and about the economic system that bears its name. In this book Levine argues that our pursuit of ever more wealth in the form of capital expresses our dissatisfaction with the world we live in with what we have and what we don't have. Capital embodies our hope for something different. Because capital embodies this hope it has become desire's object. In his study of capitalism Levine explores the meaning of capital as a social reality connected to fundamental human aspirations. The link between capital and the pursuit of a hoped-for state is especially important in light of the stubborn insistence on the part of its critics that capitalism exists to serve the material interests of those whose vocation is to own capital. This misunderstanding ignores what is essential about capital which is its link not to interests but to hope especially the hope that by accumulating capital the individual can achieve an attachment to the good. It is this hope that blocks tolerance of any notion that there is something unfair in the capitalist's acquisition of wealth and that fairness can be achieved through its redistribution to others. It is also this hope that animates the capitalist system as a whole. And in that sense this hope is the spirit of capitalism To develop this theme Levine calls on the ideas and writings of major theorists involved with understanding modernity and capitalism Adam Smith Karl Marx Max Weber Emile Durkheim and Joseph Schumpeter Critical History of the Christian Doctrine of Justification and Reconciliation Albrecht Ritschl,1872 The Law Journal Reports ,1890 Marketing and the Quality-of-Life Interface A. Coskun Samli,1987-06-23 The book is best suited as a resource for students in seminars dealing with marketing s role in society At present it is the only book devoted entirely to the linkage between marketing and the quality of life concept Upper division and graduate collections Choice This interdisciplinary collection of essays focuses on marketing s ability to improve the prevailing quality of life in a society It provides general philosophies for marketing practitioners teachers and researchers to explore and evaluate and offers specific criteria for practicing marketing with positive quality of life consequences New Revised and Annotated Code of Iowa Iowa,William Edward Miller,1885 The Revised Statutes of the State of New York New York (State),1896
