The Lawsons Fork Headwaters To Confluence:

The Lawson's Fork David Taylor, Gary Henderson, 2000-04 In this deeply personal journey author David Taylor takes an illustrated voyage down the Lawson's Fork an urban stream that crosses the city of Spartanburg South Carolina Circling Home John Lane, 2011-08-15 After many years of limited commitments to people or places writer and naturalist John Lane married in his late forties and settled down in his hometown of Spartanburg in the South Carolina piedmont He his wife and two stepsons built a sustainable home in the woods near Lawson's Fork Creek Soon after settling in Lane pinpointed his location on a topographical map Centering an old chipped saucer over his home he traced a circle one mile in radius and set out to explore the area What follows from that simple act is a chronicle of Lane's deepening knowledge of the place where he'll likely finish out his life An accomplished hiker and paddler Lane discovers within a mile of his home a variety of coexistent landscapes ancient and modern natural and manmade There is of course the creek with its granite shoals floodplain and surrounding woods The circle also encompasses an eight thousand year old cache of Native American artifacts graves of a dozen British soldiers killed in 1780 an eighteenth century ironworks site remnants of two cotton plantations a hundred year old country club a sewer plant and a smattering of mid to late twentieth century subdivisions Lane's explorations intensify his bonds to family friends and colleagues as they sharpen his sense of place By looking more deeply at what lies close to home both the ordinary and the remarkable Lane shows us how whole new worlds can open up Elemental South Dorinda G. Dallmeyer, 2004 Includes a gathering of poetry essays and fiction by the region's best nature writers such as Rick Bass and Janisse Ray Some featured writers are originally from the South and others migrated there but all have honed their voices on the region's distinctive landscapes Simultaneous Teaching About Place Laird Christensen, Hal Crimmel-Eds, 2008-02-28 The sixteen essays in this anthology describe the practice of teaching about place with the goal of inspiring educators as well as other readers to discover the value of close investigation of their own places The contributors discuss places from the desert river canyons of the American West to the bayous of Texas to wildlife refuges on the Atlantic Coast to New England's forests and river and back to the wildland urban interface in suburban Southern California These essays reveal broader lessons about the possibilities and limitations that come with teaching about place and inhabiting our own places outside the classroom Contributors include Ann Zwinger Bradley John Monsma SueEllen Campbell Terrell Dixon and John Elder Orion Afield, 2000 Come to the Cow Pens! Christine Swager, 2002 Follows the course of an important Revolutionary War battle and profiles Brigadier General Daniel Morgan and other figures using both prose and verse Best of the Kudzu Telegraph John Lane, 2008 Jimmy Buffet has his Coconut Telegraph but he's got nothing on nature writer John Lane who sends his musings into the world each week in a popular newspaper column named after the ubiquitous green vine that's swallowing the South Lane is a champion of the underdog and what he seeks to protect is the character and the beauty of the place he lives Lane a much published poet and essayist is a soldier for sustainability and a warrior for wildness Using both wit and wisdom he takes on the environmental issues of our times often by simply taking us on a walk through the woods or a drive up the highway Just when he seems to write best about animals in his South Carolina Upcountry backyard deer tree frogs and yes coyotes he captivates us with a river adventure He writes with as much intensity about old maps or a favorite pickup truck as he does about the socio political issues that concern him land use urban planning and conservation These four dozen short essays published by Community Journals in upstate South Carolina will make you look more closely at the world around you and also Lane hopes will make you look ahead to take actions large and small to protect the place you live
