Structure And Dissolution In English Writing 1910 1920:

Structure and Dissolution in English Writing, 1910-1920 Stuart Sillars, 2016-07-27 This book explores key texts Howards End The Rainbow and the poetry of Owen Sassoon and Edward Thomas to show the mingled continuation and rejection of convention as their characteristic achievement exploring features often seen as failures It also discusses the writing s increasing concern with the inadequacies of language seeing it within the frame of contemporary society and deconstructive theory and attempting to locate them in relation to high Modernism Modernist Literature Mary Ann Gillies, 2007-03-19 This engaging textbook provides a critical assessment of British modernist literature produced between 1900 and 1945 Each chapter focuses on a single decade a distinct genre and a specific theme the 1900s the short story gender and sexuality the 1910s poetry war technology and propaganda the 1920s the novel new modes of literary expression the 1930s the documentary political engagement A final chapter covers the 1940s and beyond looking at new literary and artistic movements and other modernisms Covering canonical texts and lesser known works Modernist Literature introduces students to current debates in Modernism and a range of literature in its historical and aesthetic contexts Features Examines four distinct genres the short story poetry novel and documentary decade by decade Combines close readings with cultural and political analyses of British modernism Includes a Chronology and Further Readings with each chapter Touch and Intimacy in First World War Literature Santanu Das, 2006-04-06 The First World War ravaged the male body on an unprecedented scale yet fostered moments of physical intimacy and tenderness among the soldiers in the trenches Touch the most elusive and private of the senses became central to war experience War writing is haunted by experiences of physical contact from the muddy realities of the front to the emotional intensity of trench life to the traumatic obsession with the wounded body in nurses memoirs Through extensive archival and historical research analysing previously unknown letters and diaries alongside literary writings by figures such as Owen and Brittain Santanu Das recovers the sensuous world of the First World War trenches and hospitals This original and evocative study alters our understanding of the period as well as of the body at war and illuminates the perilous intimacy between sense experience emotion and language as we try to make meaning in times of crisis Edward Thomas Judy Kendall, 2012-02-15 Edward Thomas The Origins of his Poetry builds a new theoretical framework for critical work on imaginative composition through an investigation of Edward Thomas s composing processes on material from his letters his poems and his prose books It looks at his relation to the land and landscape and includes detailed and illuminating new readings of his poems It traces connections between Thomas s approach to composition and the writing and thought of Freud Woolf and William James and the influence of Japanese aesthetics and draws surprising and far reaching conclusions for the study of poetic composition The Poetry of Shell Shock Daniel Hipp, 2005-07-28 The British poets Wilfred Owen Ivor Gurney and Siegfried Sassoon found themselves psychologically altered by what they experienced in the First World War Owen was hospitalized in April 1917 for shell shock in Scotland where he met Siegfried Sassoon in June of that year hospitalized for the same affliction Ivor Gurney found the war ironically to have been a place of relative stability within an otherwise tormented life When he was wounded during the war s final year his doctors observed signs of mental illness which evolved into incapacitating psychosis by 1922 For each of these men all poets before the war poetry served as a way to inscribe continuity into their lives enabling them to retaliate against the war s propensity to render the lives of the participants discontinuous Poetry allowed them to return to the war through memory and imagination and poetry helped them to bring themselves back from psychological breakdown to a state of stability based upon a relationship to the war that their literary war enabled them to create and discover This work investigates the ways in which the poetry of war functioned as a means for these three men to express the inexpressible and to extract value out of the experience of war Bibliography and index are also included Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch, Kevin J. H. Dettmar, 2006 The goal of this anthology is to present a wealth of poetry prose and drama from the full sweep of the literary history of the British Isles and its empire and to do so in ways that will bring out both the works original cultural contexts and their lasting aesthetic power Pref Branch-lines Guy Cuthbertson, Lucy Newlyn, 2008 When Edward Thomas died in the First World War very few of his poems had been published but he is now recognised as one of the finest and most influential poets of the last century Although often referred to as a poet s poet his writing has an almost universal appeal He wrote accessibly on traditional themes the natural world human relationships transience and mortality And yet his poetry is alive with the critical intelligence that came from years of writing non fiction and reviewing verse Branch Lines captures the range of Thomas s achievement not least by combining poetry with prose In this unique collection fifty five contemporary poets reflect on Thomas s craftsmanship and enduring power Some have chosen poems of their own in which they detect his influence others have written new poems in his honour Each poet has also contributed a piece of prose and the volume contains an introduction four critical essays illustrations a Foreword by Andrew Motion and an Afterword by Michael Longley Branch Lines offers a fascinating perspective on the workings of literary influence with personal insights from some of the leading poet critics of our time The collection has a double value It is a celebration of Thomas and dignified tribute to his achievement at the same time it bears witness to his powers of regeneration Andrew Motion CONTRIBUTORS INCLUDE Dannie Abse Gillian Clarke David Constantine Robert Crawford Kevin Crossley Holland Peter Dale Jane Draycott U A Fanthorpe John Fuller Jane Griffiths David Harsent Seamus Heaney Geoffrey Hill Jeremy Hooker P J Kavanagh Grevel Lindop Edna Longley Michael Longley Glyn Maxwell Jamie McKendrick Andrew Motion Paul Muldoon Bernard O Donoghue Tom Paulin Peter Porter Jem Poster Vernon Scannell Peter Scupham Owen Sheers Penelope Shuttle Jon Stallworthy Anne Stevenson Charles Tomlinson Clive Wilmer English Novel Explication Peter L.
