Surrealist Revolution In France:

The Surrealist Revolution in France Herbert S. Gershman, 1974 A Bibliography of the Surrealist Revolution in France Herbert S. Gershman, 1969 The Surrealist Revolution in France Notebaart, Amsterdam, 1983 Literature and Art - the Surrealist Revolution in France & Belgium Notebaart, Bussum, Surrealism, History and Revolution Simon Baker, 2007

This book is a new account of the surrealist movement in France between the two world wars. It examines the uses that surrealist artists and writers made of ideas and images associated with the French Revolution, describing a complex relationship between surrealism's avant-garde revolt and its powerful sense of history and heritage. Focusing on both texts and images by key figures such as Louis Aragon, Georges Bataille, Jacques Andr Boiffard, Andr Breton, Robert Desnos, Max Ernst, Max Morise, and Man Ray, this book situates surrealist material in the wider context of the literary and visual arts of the period through the theme of revolution. It raises important questions about the politics of representing French history, literary and political memorial spaces, monumental representations of the past, and critical responses to them, imaginary portraiture, and revolutionary spectatorship. The study shows that a full understanding of surrealism requires a detailed account of its attitude to revolution and that understanding this surrealist concept of revolution means accounting for the complex historical imagination at its heart.

The Surrealist Revolution in France and Belgium, Partly from the Library of W.F.C. (Willy) Timmerans Notebaart, Bussum, "Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939" Linda Steer, 2017-07-05

The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation, this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s: L'Évolution Surréaliste edited by Andr Breton, Documents edited by Georges Bataille, and Minotaure edited by Breton and others. The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re-contextualization, and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate. The book is structured around four case studies, including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot's clinic at the Salpêtrière hospital, positioned as poetry rather than pathology, and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper's last victim, radically transformed into a work of art. Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical. Her study shows that the act of removal and re-framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning, an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s.

The Routledge Companion to Surrealism Kirsten Strom, 2022-11-08

This book provides a conceptual and global overview of the field of Surrealist studies. Methodologically, the companion considers Surrealism's many achievements but also its historical shortcomings to illuminate its connections to the historical and cultural moments from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty first century vantage point Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature film and political and intellectual history
