Living the Truth in Love Janet Smith, Ph.D., 2015-10-05 Living the Truth in Love grew out of the desire to provide answers to the questions posed in the Lineamenta for the Synod on Marriage of 2015 in Rome How can the Christian community give pastoral attention to families with persons with homosexual tendencies What are the responses that in light of cultural sensitivities are considered to be most appropriate While avoiding any unjust discrimination how can such persons receive pastoral care in these situations in light of the Gospel How can God s will be proposed to them in their situation

40 People who want to be instruments of Christ s love to those who experience same sex attraction among them our children brothers and sisters aunts and uncles parents friends and coworkers seek guidance on how best to do so We need to listen to the stories of those who experience SSA and the stories of those who have accompanied them on their journeys We also need to ground our responses in a genuine Christian understanding of the human person and of human sexuality More and more of those who have left the gay life style are telling their stories stories that disclose that engaging in homosexual sexual acts has not delivered the happiness sought Fortunately for many there is a second chapter to the story a beautiful story of falling in love with Jesus and his Church of finding an ennobling understanding of the truth of the human person Their journeys and transformations have often been facilitated by family members and friends counselors and spiritual directors who have been affirming and accepting of those who experience

same sex attraction without approving all their choices Those who courageously face the realities of their lives and resolutely make the changes necessary a process generally involving a significant amount of suffering prayer commitment to the sacraments and a refashioning of relationships eventually find peace not misery in accepting the Church's teaching on sexuality In their willingness to undergo conversions of many kinds and in their desire to seek holiness and live lives of complete self giving they become witnesses of the saving power of Jesus love and the graces he bestows on those who love him This volume includes essays that lay out the Christian view of the human person and of human sexuality essays that challenge the bifurcation of sexualities into heterosexual and homosexual Topics include an explanation of the meaning of the word disorder a discussion of the therapeutic power of friendship and an application of St Pope John Paul II's personalism to the question of same sex attraction Psychologists and counselors explain various ways of affirming those who experience SSA and of leading them to experience the power of Christ's healing love Several of those who experience SSA tell their touching and inspiring stories

Catholic Moral Theology in the United States Charles E. Curran,2008 In this magisterial volume Charles E Curran surveys the historical development of Catholic moral theology in the United States from its 19th century roots to the present day He begins by tracing the development of pre Vatican II moral theology that with the exception of social ethics had the limited purpose of training future confessors to know what actions are sinful and the degree of sinfulness Curran then explores and illuminates the post Vatican II era with chapters on the effect of the Council on the scope and substance of moral theology the impact of Humanae vitae Pope Paul VI's encyclical condemning artificial contraception fundamental moral theology sexuality and marriage bioethics and social ethics Curran's perspective is unique For nearly 50 years he has been a major influence on the development of the field and has witnessed first hand the dramatic increase in the number and diversity of moral theologians in the academy and the Church No one is more qualified to write this first and only comprehensive history of Catholic moral theology in the United States
