Fear Joanna Bourke,2015-02-05 Fear is one of the most basic and most powerful of all the human emotions Sometimes it is hauntingly specific flames searing patterns on the ceiling a hydrogen bomb a terrorist More often anxiety overwhelms us from some source within there is an irrational panic about venturing outside a dread of failure a premonition of doom In this astonishing book we encounter the fears and anxieties of hundreds of British and American men women and children From fear of the crowd to agoraphobia from battle experiences to fear of nuclear attack from cancer to AIDS this is an utterly original insight into the mindset of the twentieth century from one of most brilliant historians and thinkers of our time

The Vampire Montague Summers,1928      The Law of Psychic Phenomena Thomson Jay Hudson,1908 The Law of Psychic Phenomena is a classic work in the field of psychic manifestations of the human intellect The author Dr Thomson Jay Hudson Ph D LL D was the acknowledged authority in the field of metaphysics when he wrote this book in the late years of the 19th century This book explores all areas of the metaphysical world from early philosophies to hypnotism and mesmerism clairvoyance visions right through an overview of the psycho therapeutic practices of that time The Law of Psychic Phenomena remains as fascinating and informative today as it was when it was first published The Encyclopaedia of Death and Life in the Spirit-world John Reynolds Francis,1900 The Routledge History of Death since 1800 Peter N. Stearns,2020-10-13 The Routledge History of Death Since 1800 looks at how death has been treated and dealt with in modern history the history of the past 250 years in a global context through a mix of definite often quantifiable changes and a complex qualitative assessment of the subject The book is divided into three parts with the first considering major trends in death history and identifying widespread patterns of change and continuity in the material and cultural features of death since 1800 The second part turns to specifically regional experiences and the third offers more specialized chapters on key topics in the modern history of death Historical findings and debates feed directly into a current and prospective assessment of death as many societies transition into patterns of ageing that will further alter the death experience and challenge modern reactions Thus a final chapter probes this topic by way of introducing the links between historical experience and current trajectories ensuring that the book gives the reader a framework for assessing the ongoing process as well as an understanding of the past Global in focus and linking death to a variety of major developments in modern global history the volume is ideal for all those interested in the multifaceted history of how death is dealt with in different societies over time and who want access to the rich and growing historiography on the subject Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Medico-legal Journal ,1898
