Swallowing Clouds Jim Wong-Chu, 1999      Asian American Literature Keith Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers texts and the issues and drives that motivate their writing This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history as well as the authors and texts that best define it A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories essays on Asian American identity gender issues and sexuality and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children s literature More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well known contemporary authors especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms

Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Lafleur Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breitbart Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Changing the Face of Canadian Literature Dane Swan, 2020-09-01 Needless to say moments like now when the hurdles to becoming a respected author are at their lowest When the only hurdles to being published are the quality of your writing and your patience to deal with certain less and less important gatekeepers Moments in history like this must be acknowledged and celebrated That's what this anthology is It's a celebration A moment to cry out Look how many of us have a voice There are stories and poetry in this country that are about people like me I am not alone Directions Home George Elliott Clarke, 2012-09-26 The latest work from pioneering scholar George Elliott Clarke Directions Home is the most comprehensive analysis of African Canadian texts and writers to date Building on the discoveries of his critically acclaimed Odysseys Home Clarke passionately analyses the beautiful complexities and haunting conundrums of this important body of literature Directions Home explores the trajectories and tendencies of African Canadian literature within the Canadian canon and the socio-cultural traditions of the African Diaspora Clarke showcases the importance of little known texts including church histories and slave narratives and offers studies of autobiography crime and punishment jazz poetics and musical composition The collection also includes studies of significant contemporary writers such as George Boyd and Dionne Brand and trailblazing African Canadian intellectuals like A B Walker and Anna Minerva Henderson With its national bilingual and historical perspectives Directions Home is an essential guide to African Canadian literature A History of Canadian Literature W.H. New, 2003-08-06 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary The Canadian Forum ,1999-03 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Amerasia Journal ,2007 Meanjin ,2004 Diaspora Helen Gilbert,2000 Sentenced to Light Fred Wah,2008 Astonishing series of collaborative image text projects Sentenced to Light whispers between words and pictures in a space we call culture City Voices Xu, Xi, Mike Ingham, Michael Anthony Ingham,2003 City Voices is the first showcase of postwar Hong Kong literature originating in English Fiction poetry essays and memoirs from more than 70 authors are featured to demonstrate the rich variety and vitality of the city s literary production University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,2000 Heat ,2000 Forage Rita Wong,2007 Her questioning truthfulness demonstrates that Wong is a significant poet George Elliott Clarke Halifax Sunday Herald The Antigonish Review ,2000 Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2000 The New Quarterly ,2001
