Swan Dive Other Stories:

Swan Dive and Other Stories Geary Kaczorowski, 1989 Dream City and Other Stories Cristian Mihai, Dream City and Other Stories is a masterfully woven tapestry of interlacing narratives from the deft hand of Cristian Mihai. These tales will invade the sanctity of your thoughts, twisting your perception of reality and painting your dreams with a palette of absurdity, heartbreak, and intrigue. In the titular story, Dream City, meet a painter battling an unforgiving disease, his life fading as his artistry reaches its zenith. His struggle is a haunting portrayal of sacrifice of a man who gives all to his craft, even as life itself seeps away from him. Each story in this collection is a window into a world where the extraordinary masquerades as the mundane, where the line between dream and reality blurs and distorts. Cristian Mihai's vibrant prose will sweep you along, leaving you breathless, moved, and forever altered.

Babylon Revisited and Other Stories F. Scott Fitzgerald, 2018-01-01. Set in the year after the 1929 crash and incorporating many autobiographical elements, Babylon Revisited tells the story of the widower Charlie Wales, a reformed alcoholic and successful businessman returning to Paris to convince his in-laws to give him back the daughter he abandoned. As the old haunts of the city he used to carouse in seem more and more alien to him, he finds himself assailed by feelings of guilt and regret.

God's Scorekeeper and Other Stories Frank G. Honeycutt, 2019-08-20. Quick! What do these characters all have in common? An anguished ghost whose interest in measuring mountains led to his premature death. A retired educator who takes a part-time job inside the cozy confines of Wrigley Field's manual scoreboard. An obsessive orthodontist known to evangelize his prone patients. A bipolar father whose zany day includes an encounter with the police. And a victim of identity theft reconsidering his vocation. They're all pastors, of course. Join storyteller Frank Honeycutt on a roller coaster ride inside the flawed lives and vivid imaginations of sixteen ministers struggling to keep and make sense of their faith. At times humorous, surprising, sad, and even warped, this fictional peek into the private lives of clergy sheds angular light upon the complicated theological motives guiding those called to lead God's people.

Last of the Belles and Other Stories F. Scott Fitzgerald, 2018-01-01. Inspired by Fitzgerald's own courtship of his future wife Zelda, The Last of the Belles centres on the Southern beauty Ailie Calhoun from Tarleton, Georgia, who finds herself the object of attention of all the officers at a nearby army base, including the narrator, Andy. A wistful and melancholy exploration of unfulfilled dreams and lost youth, the story is considered one of Fitzgerald's finest pieces of short fiction. This volume also includes other acclaimed stories such as Jacob's Ladder, The Swimmers, and The Bridal Party, written by Fitzgerald between 1927 and 1931 during the prolonged period in which he was struggling to compose Tender Is the Night.

Vanishing Animals & Other Stories Mary Morris, 1991 Harpo's Garden and Other Stories Roger Kenyon, 1998 Friend of Mankind and Other Stories Julian Mazor, 2004. These stories, ten in all, take place in Ireland, New York City, and Washington D.C. and Virginia, Texas, and Colorado. The characters represent the various stages of man, from boyhood and youth to the first precincts of old age. John Lionel, who appeared in four stories collected in Julian Mazor's earlier volume Washington and Baltimore appears here in four more chronicling his growing up in Washington. With a finely tuned ear for speech, the author conveys a vivid sense of place and of the spirit of the times. As he portrays a young boy in trouble, an adolescent in love, mired in self-doubt and imminent heartbreak, a Texas high school football player, a man on the verge of marriage, and one on the verge of divorce, a middle-aged writer struggling to understand his life, and an older man in the sorrowful and complicated throes of marriage to a younger woman, Mazor writes with compassion, irony, and humor, and with a clear-eyed affection for each of these individuals. In his telling, their stories become works of art. Mazor presents an entertaining take on the battle of the sexes. Publishers Weekly: "It is a pleasure to watch Julian Mazor at his work. His style is so transparent that you are unconscious he has one; his words simply go about their business without fuss or waste or ambiguity. His stories are honest and his accomplishment impressive." Geoffrey Wolff, Washington Post. He can write his prose, says simply, that he cares about people, places, things. New York Times Book Review. Julian Mazor was born in Baltimore and grew up in Washington, D.C. His stories have appeared in the New Yorker, Shenandoah, and the O. Henry Prize collection series Washington and Baltimore; his earlier collection of stories was published in 1968. Fatherhood Thomas H. Cook, 2013-05-07. Lyrical, suspenseful short fiction from an Edgar Award-winning author. Thomas Cook has long been one of my favorite writers. Harlan Coben: Over his acclaimed career, Cook's novels have haunted, riveted, and spellbound readers across the world, and his short stories are equally acclaimed. They range from the intensely focused world of Fatherhood, the Herodotus Award-winning title story, to the Edgar-nominated Rain, a dark kaleidoscopic tale of Manhattan on a single rain-swept night. The Fix, the story of a famous boxing fix that was well not a fix at all, was selected for inclusion in Best Mystery Stories of the Year. What She Offered, the gripping tale of a one-night stand, was included in the Best Noir Stories of the Century. Like Cook's novels, the range of this collection is itself astonishing. From a backwoods Appalachian shack during the Depression, Poor People, to a Midwestern college campus in the throes of sixties revolt, The Sun Gazer, to a midtown Manhattan bookstore on Christmas Eve, The Lessons of the Season, this collection demonstrates precisely that, in the words of Michael Connolly, no one tells a story better than Thomas H. Cook. , The Best Seats in the House and Other Stories. Keith Lee Morris, 2004. Stories of small-town men groping for a perspective on themselves and the lives they've come to live. Lassitude and Other Stories Carlos Cortés, 1998. Review of Contemporary Fiction, 1990. Small Press Record of Books in Print, 1990. The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17. This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up-to-date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels. Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations, careful cross-referencing, and extensive indexing, this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full-time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism. More than 1,000 titles are included, each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book. The World of Zines Mike Gunderloy, Cari Goldberg Janice, 1992.
