Sweet Deathkind Death:

The Mystery of Mysteries Samuel Coale, 2000 Four American mystery writers have contributed new dimensions to the mystery form Tony Hillerman's Navajos and their customs Amanda Cross's Carolyn Heilbrun's academics and their feminist credentials or lack thereof James Lee Burke's Southern Louisiana Cajuns and his own fiercely moral take on Southern gothic fiction and Walter Mosley's urban blacks and their culture have challenged the conventional mystery's focus Using feminist and black critical theory mythic and historical patterns and literary genre theory Samuel Coale examines these writers works and investigates the compromises that each is forced to make when working within a recognizably popular literary form

Murder by the Book? Sally Rowena Munt, 2003-09-02 Murder by the Book is a thorough and thoroughly enjoyable look at the blossoming genre of the feminist crime novel in Britain and the United States Sally Munt asks why the form has proved so attractive as a vehicle for oppositional politics whether the pleasures of detective fiction can be truly transgressive and when exactly it was that the dyke detective appeared as the new super hero for today Along the way Munt poses some critical questions about the relations between fiction and activism politics and representations the writer and the reader This will be an enticing book both for addicts of the genre and for teachers and their students Figuring Age Kathleen

Woodward, 1999-03-22 Figuring Age engages the virtually invisible subject of older women in western culture Like other markers of social difference age is given meaning by a culture Yet unlike gender and race the subjects of age and aging have received little sustained attention Central to Figuring Age is the crucial question of how women are aged by culture How are older women represented in a visual culture that is dominated by images of youth in television film and life performance How do psychoanalysis rejuvenation therapy and hormone replacement therapy the fashion system cosmetic surgery and midlife bodybuilding shape our views of aging as well as of the older body itself What is the timing of aging To what extent is aging a culturally induced trauma Carolyn G. Heilbrun, Feminist in a Tenured Position Susan Kress, 1997 Preeminent feminist critic Carolyn G Heilbrun's life experience echoes that of a generation of professional women often isolated and marginalized within inhospitable institutions Incorporating interviews with friends colleagues and Heilbrun herself author Susan Kress illuminates Heilbrun's various public identities and places her in the context of the developing women's movement
