Strong Mothers Weak Wives The Search For Gender Equality:

Strong Mothers, Weak Wives Miriam M. Johnson, 1988 For years I have been impressed by the originality and insight of Johnson's articles on gender sexuality and male dominance. This book continues and expands the excellent quality of the earlier work. It provides an original argument about the central structural locus of gender inequality and makes a major advance in its insightful and insistent focus on the role of the father in gender differentiation and sexual dominance. It will surely be recognized as a major work of feminist theory. Nancy Chodorow author of The Reproduction of Mothering. This thoughtful and provocative book greatly deepens the debate over the effects of mothers and fathers on their children. Arlie Hochschild author of The Second Shift. Inside the Two Job Marriage Takamure Itsue, Japanese Antiquity, and Matricultural Paradigms that Address the Crisis of Modernity Yasuko Sato, 2023-06-30

This book explores Takamure Itsue's 1894-1964 intellectual odyssey as Japan's most notable pioneer in the study of women's history. When she embarked on a series of scholarly projects that investigated marriage patterns and kinship systems in ancient Japan, it was a response to crisis-ridden modernity. Relentless in her quest to dismantle patriarchy, this woman from the Land of Fire (a nickname for her birthplace Kumamoto Prefecture) locked herself away in 1931 and spent the rest of her life conducting research on female-friendly societies with matrilocal arrangements under kinship-based communal systems. While dissecting the patriarchal norms undergirding the capitalist nation state, she embraced matricultural paradigms that embodied life-sustaining and life-enhancing values through communal childrearing and matrilineal inheritance. Takamure, a visionary thinker, asked big picture questions and addressed multifarious issues of contemporary relevance, including beauty standards, human trafficking, gross disparities in wealth, war, and imperialism, science and religion, and humanity's relationship with nature. the Family Julie Xuemei Hu, Shondrah Tarrezz Nash, 2019-04-23 Marriage and the Family: Mirror of a Diverse Global Society is a comprehensive text about marriage and the family in sociology, family science, and diversity studies. The book is divided into four parts, studying marriage patterns and understanding family diversity, developing and maintaining intimate relationships, tackling family issues and managing household crises, and appreciating contemporary living arrangements in a diverse American society and across the global community. Marriage and the Family is unique in its focus on diversity as well as its global perspective. Diversity Overview boxes feature vignettes of family diversity in America. Global Overview boxes invite students to experience family life in different areas of the world. Indeed, families become a mirror that helps students see a diversifying American society and a globalizing world. Families in the U.S. Karen V. Hansen, Anita Ilta Garey, 1998 Attempts to do justice to the complexity of contemporary families and to situate them in their economic, political, and cultural contexts. This book explores the ways in which family life is gendered and reflects on the work of maintaining family and kin relationships, especially as social and family power structures change over time. Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2010-04-06 In the last decade, the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly

Imagining Motherhood in Contemporary Irish and Caribbean Literature Abigail L. Palko, 2016-07-25 Imagining Motherhood in Contemporary Irish and Caribbean Literature undertakes a comparative transnational reading to develop more expansive literary models of good mothering Abigail L Palko argues that Irish and Caribbean literary representations of non normative mothering practices do not reflect transgressive or dangerous mothering but are rather cultural negotiations of the definition of a good mother This original book demonstrates the sustained commitment to countering the dominant ideologies of maternal self sacrifice foundational to both Irish and Caribbean nationalist rhetoric offering instead the possibility of integrating maternal agency into an effective model of female citizenship

The anthology provides an excellent overview of the permutations of men's friendships. It is both tightly organized and wide ranging, a particularly difficult accomplishment for a collection. Men's Friendships is one of the most interesting additions to the growing friendship literature. It significantly opens up the debate over gender differences in friendship both within and between genders. Masculinities

Lesbians and Gays in Couples and Families Joan Laird, Robert-Jay

Green, 1996-06-13. The first book to focus on clinical work with lesbians and gays in family relationships. This groundbreaking resource provides you with a wealth of fascinating research and case examples as well as recommendations and suggestions for working with gay couples and families. Joan Laird and Robert Jay Green have gathered a distinguished panel of practitioners to create this comprehensive collection. The contributors address the experiences of lesbians and gay men as couples and as parents and examine their relationships with the families in which they were raised.

Divorce Culture Karla

Brent Hackstaff, 1994. Women Studies Abstracts, 1992. After the Happily Ever After Linda Rose Ennis, 2017. This book is about the two tiered system and invisible imbalance that operates within the framework of the family. It is about the fantasy of the happily ever after which the wedding industry promotes and Western society reinforces. Why are we hanging onto this faux happiness at the expense of our future well being? Why don't we wonder what happened after they lived happily ever after and if in fact they really do What I hope to achieve by writing this book is to rattle the cage of young brides about to embark on this journey to talk about these issues with their future partners and to set the system up in a more equal way so no one is caught off guard if and when things crumble It will be difficult to achieve this task because no one wants to think about things falling apart before the marriage even begins and most certainly it sours the sweetness of the fantasy of the happily ever after as we know it What we don t realize is that there will be less bitterness and upset for the family especially for the children if we pursue this line of thinking Isn t that the real happily ever after Theorising Heterosexuality Diane Richardson,1996 A collection of ten essays questioning assumptions of heterosexuality as the natural underpinning of culture and identity The contributing social scientists problematize the manner in which heterosexuality is institutionalized in society rethinking ideas of social and feminist theory domestic life social policy masculinity homosexuality and people s experience of desire Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Feminist Bookstore News ,1990 Cold War Compulsions Nancy D. Campbell,1995 Older People Giving Care Sally K. Gallagher,1994-03-14 One of the few studies of how the elderly help others through formal and informal volunteerism While a large number of studies focus on the help older people receive from relatives and friends this work examines the many ways in which older people are involved in giving care to others Written by a sociologist and based on a stratified sample of hundreds of individuals this study assesses a number of dimensions of care giving While much of this labor goes unnoticed it is central to the building and maintenance of family and community ties and reveals ways in which social life is organized around aging gender and marriage Patterns of formal volunteerism and informal care are studied in relation to age sex marital status and other important variables that affect this essential but underplayed aspect of American community life Annual Review of Sociology John Hagan,1997

Childhood Matters Jens Qvortrup,1994 Childhood Matters provides the reader with unique material on the living conditions of children in industrial society and it presents a number of new theories and interpretations regarding the characteristics of childhood in modern society in relation to family economy politics time and space intergenerational relations and demographic developments The title Childhood Matters is pertinent in more than one sense First of all the book takes children seriously in their own right in acknowledging their constructiveness as actors not only for themselves and their own lives but also for society as a whole Secondly it challenges the idea of children whose target should be to become integrated into society School day care and other structures constitute children s own life arenas and it is forcefully argued that children s time and children s activities are their own despite efforts by adult society to colonize them for its own purposes and interests
