Jean-Philippe Platteau

Structural Adjustment in Africa:

Structural Adjustment in Sub-Saharan Africa Robert Lensink, 1996 Offers an overview of the debate on adjustment programmes financed by the World Bank and the IMF in Africa during the 1980s Compares Africa with several other developing regions Describes the structure of the World Bank and the IMF and their credit facilities for financing adjustments

Structural Adjustment and Socio-economic Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Peter Gibbon, Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1996 This report summarises the results of work at the Nordiska Afrikainstitutet Nordic Africa Institute NAI on the impact of structural adjustment implementation on the economies states and societies of sub Saharan Africa It consists of two essays and an appendix listing research projects which have been or are being carried out under the auspices of NAI The first essay raises a series of conceptual and methodological questions in the context of a presentation of some of the main empirical results obtained from extended field work carried out during the course of 1992 and 1993 in Kenya Tanzania and Zimbabwe The second essay presents the three main themes private trading networks and structures the changing political economy of land and popular forms of social provisioning that constitute the core of the second phase of NAI's structural adjustment research and in so doing provides a review of aspects of the adjustment literature This report is therefore an attempt both at stock taking and agenda building as part of a wider quest for deepening our understanding of the structures and processes of socio economic change associated with the crisis and adjustment years in contemporary Africa

Stabilization and Structural Adjustment Finn Tarp, 2002-09-11 This book reveals and examines the relevance of the macroeconomic theory and models behind recommendations for stabilization and structural adjustment Alternative analytical approaches are discussed This is done on the basis of an up to date review of developments in sub saharan Africa during the 1980s and within a common analytical framework

Structural Adjustment, Reconstruction and Development in Africa Kempe Ronald Hope, 2019-06-04 First published in 1997 this volume is intended to make a contribution to both the literature and the contentious debate on the relationship between structural adjustment and reconstruction and development in Africa as seen from the multidisciplinary perspective of academics and practitioners working in Africa on African development problems and issues The implementation of structural adjustment in Africa has spawned a considerable and still on going debate with vociferous advocates on both sides of the issue particularly with respect to the efficacy of structural adjustment programmes SAPs as an antidote to Africa's development crisis This book contributes to that debate with a rich mixture of analytical views and ideas covering a wide range of countries and sectors on the role and impact of structural adjustment programmes on the process of reconstruction and development in Africa

A Thousand Flowers Silvia Federici, Constantine George Caffentzis, Ousseina Alidou, 2000 Combining theoretical essays with reports and testimonies this book presents a unique account of the impact of the World Bank's structural adjustment programme on African education Part I contains an in depth analysis and critique of the World Bank's policies on the future of African educational systems while Part II looks at the response of teachers and students to the dismantling of public education and points to the development of a new Pan Africanist movement Negotiating Structural Adjustment in Africa Hilary Hodgson, United Nations Development Programme, 1994 Essential reading for those involved in implementing adjustment programmes the findings of this UNDP commissioned research set out to analyse experiences and provide a set of development objectives Insufficient attention has been paid in the programmes to the links between macroeconomic policy changes and microeconomic behaviour which has had a negative impact on investment and activity BR In association with UNDP FSG and QEH Structural Adjustment and Beyond in Sub-Saharan Africa Rolph van der Hoeven, F. P. M. van der Kraaij, 1994 Cloth Edition Much has been learned about the need to modify structural adjustment policies and to apply them in appropriate ways This book brings together the theory of researchers and the practical experience of policymakers

Structural Adjustment Giles Mohan, 2000 Focusing on Africa Latin America and Asia examines the origins impacts and alternatives to the structural adjustment programmes IMF and World Bank Sponsored Structural Adjustment Programs in Africa Kwadwo Konadu-Agyemang, 2001-11-28 This title was first published in 2001 Bringing together geographers planners political scientists economists rural development specialists bankers public administrators and other development experts this volume questions the benefits of Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs It critically assesses the impact of SAPs from a wider perspective than a purely economic one highlighting concerns about impacts of adjustments on the more vulnerable elements of society such as social welfare the environment labour gender and agriculture Revealing both the costs and benefits of the economic restructuring programme the book also suggests alternatives to current development models and how SAPs can be made more sustainable An original and comprehensive addition to the collections of both students and practitioners of development Structural Adjustment in Africa Bonnie Campbell, John Loxley, 1989-11-24 Providing overviews of states and sectors classes and companies in the new international division of labour this series treats polity economy dialectics at global regional and national levels This volume in the series looks at the complexities of structural adjustment in Africa Our Continent, Our Future P. Thandika Mkandawire, Charles Chukwuma Soludo, 1998 Our Continent Our Future presents the emerging African perspective on this complex issue The authors use as background their own extensive experience and a collection of 30 individual studies 25 of which were from African economists to summarize this African perspective and articulate a path for the future They underscore the need to be sensitive to each country's unique history and current condition They argue for a broader policy agenda and for a much more active role for the state within what is largely a market economy Finally they stress that Africa must and can compete in an increasingly globalized world and perhaps most importantly that Africans must assume the leading role in defining the continent's development agenda

Structural Adjustment and Agriculture Sreenivasan Subramanian, Elisabeth Sadoulet, Alain De Janvry, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1994-01-01 Land Reform and Structural Adjustment in Sub-Saharan

Africa Jean-Philippe Platteau,1992-01-01 Through Structural Adjustment to Transformation in Sub-Saharan Africa
 Hasa Mfaume Mlawla,Reginald Herbold Green,1998 As a contribution to the structural adjustment debate this study sets out a series of important factual judgemental normative and contextual issues relevant for understanding and explaining past performance and experience of Structural Adjustment in Africa It is a product of ten studies from the Institute of Development Studies in which thirteen sub Saharan countries participated The contributors review the experience of a number of sub Saharan African countries in designing and executing stabilization and adjustment programmes during the 1970s and 1980s The eight parts include the macro framework sectoral issues politics and governance the World Bank experience the way forward and country reports Structural Adjustment, Reconstruction and Development in Africa
 Kempe Ronald Hope,2020-04-03 First published in 1997 this volume is intended to make a contribution to both the literature and the contentious debate on the relationship between structural adjustment and reconstruction and development in Africa as seen from the multidisciplinary perspective of academics and practitioners working in Africa on African development problems and issues The implementation of structural adjustment in Africa has spawned a considerable and still on going debate with vociferous advocates on both sides of the issue particularly with respect to the efficacy of structural adjustment programmes SAPs as an antidote to Africa s development crisis This book contributes to that debate with a rich mixture of analytical views and ideas covering a wide range of countries and sectors on the role and impact of structural adjustment programmes on the process of reconstruction and development in Africa Structural Adjustment and the Crisis in Africa
 David Kennett,Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo,1992 This collection of six essays by leading African authorities provides an evaluation of the impact of the structural adjustment programmes of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund on Sub Saharan Africa and the alternative avenues for resolving the continent s economic and political crisis The Political Dimension of Structural Adjustment Programmes in Sub-Saharan Africa Akilagpa Sawyerr,1990 A Future for Africa
 Bade Onimode,2025-03-03 First published in 1992 A Future for Africa looks at the crises plaguing the Africa s societies and economies and argues convincingly that the problems are not insuperable but that though their causes are largely external the only long term solutions rest in African hands In this book the author shows how the adjustment programmes imposed on many African countries by the World Bank and the IMF have compounded the disastrous impact of foreign debt trade restrictions and falling export prices Real development will only be achieved he maintains by returning control of Africa s abundant resources to its people and by ensuring greater democracy and accountability in African political structures Structural Adjustment & the African Farmer Alex Duncan,John Howell,1992 This book traces the impact of structural adjustment policies upon the incomes and welfare of Africa s peasant farmers who currently operate at very low levels of productivity of both land and labour and are confronted with low household income and inadequate food security A common method has been applied across five countries Analyses have been made of the links between national economic policies and the various markets in which the smallholders operate and the services and infrastructures which influence their productive capacities There are differences in the resource base and the level of ecological deterioration in export opportunities in physical infrastructure and in particular in the depth and nature of economic policy reforms The team have recognised the important differences between these five countries and overcome the formidable problems of collecting agricultural data in Africa The book provides firm evidence of the impact both positive and negative of structural adjustment The editors argue for a more targeted project specific approach to small farmer development This complements the current donor interest in policy related aid support

The Impact of Structural Adjustment on the Population of Africa Aderanti Adepoju, 1993
