STICENEY, 1876    The Case Of Mary Bell Gitta Sereny, 2013-03-31 In December 1968 two girls who lived next door to each other Mary aged eleven and Norma thirteen stood before a criminal court in Newcastle accused of strangling two little boys Martin Brown four years old and Brian Howe three Norma was acquitted Mary Bell the younger but infinitely more sophisticated and cooler of the two was found guilty of manslaughter She evaded being branded as a murderer due to what the court ruled as diminished responsibility but she was sentenced to detention for life Step by step Gitta Sereny pieces together a gripping and rare study of a horrifying crime the murders the events surrounding them the alternately bizarre and nonchalant behaviour of the two girls their brazen offers to help the distraught families of the dead boys the police work that led to their apprehension and finally the trial itself What emerges from this extraordinary case is the inability of society to anticipate such events and to take adequate steps once disaster has struck    Susan Cornish Rebecca Caudill, 1966    Ancient Landmarks of Plymouth William Thomas Davis, 1883    Vessey Family Histories Robert Leslie Wilson, Margaret Anne Garland Wilson, 1988
