Suspended Prison Sentences Jakub Drápal, Krzysztof Krajewski, Milena Tripković, 2026-02-19 This book uncovers the controversies around the suspended prison sentence its main aims and features and the role that it occupies within the wider criminal justice context. Suspended prison sentences were introduced in Central and Eastern European CEE states as alternatives to short prison sentences although they were initially generally conceived of as exceptional penal tools over time they became the most imposed and dominant penal sanctions and in that sense a defining feature of criminal justice systems in the region. The book provides a rich source of information about the development and features of suspended sentences in eight CEE countries a topic that although of great importance due to their frequency has received only scant academic attention. Employing a legal socio legal and criminological approach it achieves this goal through individual chapters on eight countries Czechia, Estonia, Hungary, Poland, Romania, the Russian Federation, Serbia, and Slovenia and also through three general chapters which outline the main specificity of the region as a whole but also present nuances between different countries. The book will be of interest to a wide variety of academic researchers who study crime punishment and the penal system and especially to those interested in sentencing. Given the huge discrepancy in the frequency of use of this sanction in CEE countries and the frequency of use of parole in contemporary practice the work provides unique insights into the potential and desirability of its wider use particularly due to the minimal supervision that it requires in examined countries. The book therefore seeks to critically inform current thinking on the value and appropriateness of particular forms of sanctions in responding to crime.

The Handbook on Female Criminality in the Former Yugoslav Countries Angelina Stanojška, Darko Dimovski, Elena Maksimova, 2023-06-12 This edited volume is the first volume that researches female criminality in the Balkan region and provides insights about patriarchal relations, gender roles, and female criminal behavior. The chapters provide research and data about crimes committed by females in Serbia, North Macedonia, Montenegro, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, and Slovenia. The chapters investigate topics such as Long violence, Social abuse, and discrimination, Life trajectories towards criminal behavior, Women facing financial stress and dependence, and how it relates to crime. Women in the criminal justice system. Examining the relationship between crime, gender, and the modernization of Balkan ex-Yugoslavian social structure, this volume is ideal for interdisciplinary criminology scholars specializing in the Balkans. Alternatives to Imprisonment in England and Wales, Germany and Turkey Öznur Sevdiren, 2011-02-24 The book focuses on one of the most problematic areas of Turkish penal justice the overreliance on custodial measures and a corresponding growth in the prison population and compares Turkey with two major European countries in this respect England and Wales and Germany. The underlying question throughout the study is the extent to which prison alternatives can be seen as genuine alternatives to immediate custodial sentences.
