Story Of Inyo:

The Story of Inyo Willie Arthur Chalfant, 1922      A Land Between Rebecca Fish Ewan, 2000-12-08 A Land Between tells the stories of the people who have lived in the valley and uncovers the marks they have left on the land      Murder State Brendan C. Lindsay, 2012-06 In the second half of the nineteenth century the Euro American citizenry of California carried out mass genocide against the Native population of their state using the processes and mechanisms of democracy to secure land and resources for themselves and their private interests The murder rape and enslavement of thousands of Native people were legitimized by notions of democracy in this case mob rule through a discreetly organized and brutally effective series of petitions referenda town hall meetings and votes at every level of California government Murder State is a comprehensive examination of these events and their early legacy Preconceptions about Native Americans as shaped by the popular press and by immigrants experiences on the Overland Trail to California were used to further justify the elimination of Native people in the newcomers quest for land The allegedly violent nature of Native people was often merely their reaction to the atrocities committed against them as they were driven from their ancestral lands and alienated from their traditional resources In this narrative history employing numerous primary sources and the latest interdisciplinary scholarship on genocide Brendan C Lindsay examines the darker side of California history one rarely studied in detail and the motives of both Native Americans and Euro Americans at the time Murder State calls attention to the misuse of democracy to justify and commit genocide      Japanese American World War II Evacuation Oral History Project: Administrators Arthur A. Hansen, 1991 The Japanese American Project of the Oral History Program at Calif State U Fullerton was launched in 1972 and the collection of interviews connected with the evacuation is to appear in five volumes focusing on the internees analysts resisters guards and townspeople and presented here administrators Transcriptions of interviews with seven administrators are briefly introduced and set in context Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Dictionary Catalog of the History of the Americas New York Public Library. Reference Department, 1961      Dictionary Catalog of the History of the Americas New York Public Library. Reference Dept, 1961      Community Newspapers and the Japanese-American Incarceration Camps Ronald Bishop, 2015-06-03 Though much has been said about Japanese American incarceration camps little attention is paid to the community newspapers closest to the camps and how they constructed the identities and lives of the occupants inside Dependent on government and military officials for information these journalists rarely wrote about the violation of the evacuees civil rights Instead they concentrated on the economic impact the camps and the evacuees who would replace workers off to enlist in the military and work for defense contractors would have on the areas they covered Newspapers like the Cody Enterprise and Powell Tribune in Wyoming the Lamar Daily News and the Casa Grande Dispatch regularly published overly optimistic updates on the progress of construction the size of the contractor payrolls and the amount of materials used to build the camps Ronald Bishop and his coauthors reveal how journalists positioned the incarceration camps as a potential economic boon and how evacuees were framed as another community group there to contribute to the region's economic well being Community Newspapers and the Japanese American Incarceration Camps examines the rhetoric and journalistic approach of the local papers and how they informed the communities just outside their walls This book will appeal to scholars of history and journalism

Mine in the Sky Joseph M. Kurtak, 1998 Going back over a period of 100 years Mine in the Sky tells of the events leading up to the discovery and development of the great tungsten ore bodies at Pine Creek California Mine in the Sky recounts a history shaped by world politics the ups and downs of metals demand and economic survival through technological innovations Using personal recollections the book portrays the lives of the people who made the place what it was and found a home and sense of community in dramatic Pine Creek Canyon This account is invaluable for mining historians as well as those interested in the history of the Eastern Sierra and the Owens Valley of California

The Grizzly Bear, 1931 Vision Or Villainy Abraham Hoffman, 1981 Annotation Seventy five years ago the growing city of Los Angeles amid considerable conflict appropriated water from a rural area 250 miles away Still unresolved the controversy surrounding the Owens Valley Los Angeles Aqueduct has long since moved from the personal even violent level fictionalized in the movie Chinatown to the dry realm of court proceedings injunctions and environmental impact reports But water remains a problem in California and the questions raised by these events the rights of a rural area versus a growing metropolitan area environmental issues and levels of government responsibility are of recognized national importance today
