The Story of Manhattan Charles Hemstreet,2023-09-03 The long and narrow Island of Manhattan was a wild and beautiful spot in the year 1609 In this year a little ship sailed up the bay below the island took the river to the west and went on In these days there were no tall houses with white walls glistening in the sunlight no church spires no noisy hum of running trains no smoke to blot out the blue sky None of these things But in their place were beautiful trees with spreading branches stretches of sand hills and green patches of grass In the branches of the trees there were birds of varied colors and wandering through the tangled undergrowth were many wild animals The people of the island were men and women whose skins were quite red strong and healthy people who clothed themselves in the furs of animals and made their houses of the trees and vines In this year of 1609 these people gathered on the shore of their island and looked with wonder at the boat so different from any they had ever seen as it was swept before the wind up the river The ship was called the Half Moon and it had come all the way from Amsterdam in the Dutch Netherlands The Netherlands was quite a small country in the northern part of Europe not nearly as large as the State of New York and was usually called Holland as Holland was the most important of its several states But the Dutch owned other lands than these They had islands in the Indian Ocean that were rich in spices of every sort and the other European countries needed these spices These islands being quite close to India were called the East Indies and the company of Dutch merchants who did most of the business with them was called the East India Company They had many ships and the Half Moon was one of them
