Sanders, 2015-03-02 Four years That's how long it took Californian playboy Michael Vickers to regain his memory and come home Four years That's how long Vickers spent battered bruised and south of the border following the attack which sought to end his life all because he'd mistaken a mortal enemy for a friend Or a lover And now Vickers is looking for four years worth of payback from the devil responsible for his near demise But within days of Vickers' return a murder attempt is made on one of his suspects and this time it succeeds Enter a very shrewd detective whose eyes are on everyone Especially Vickers In Stranger at Home the second George Sanders mystery novel we are taken to a world removed from the backstage comic mystery of Crime on My Hands but nonetheless a milieu very familiar to the actor Southern California in the 1940s A world of stars and millionaires but also vice organized crime and shattered dreams And Michael Vickers himself is a hero very much after the mould of Sanders irresistibly attractive screen persona gilded and charming languid and pleasure seeking but with a steely remorseless core

Metaphors of Mind Brad

Pasanek, 2015-07-01 A pathbreaking introduction to eighteenth century metaphors of the mind that recasts the grand narrative of the Enlightenment in terms of its tropes and figures An encyclopedic dictionary along the lines of Voltaire's classic Dictionnaire Philosophique Metaphors of Mind provides an in depth look at the myriad ways in which Enlightenment writers used figures of speech to characterize the mind Drawn from Brad Pasanek's massive online archive <http://metaphorized.net> this volume constitutes a veritable treasury of mental metaphorics Dividing the book into eleven broad metaphorical categories Animals Coinage Court Empire Fetters Impressions Inhabitants Metal Mirror Rooms and Writing Pasanek maps out constellations of metaphors He frames his collection of literary excerpts in each section with a more descriptive and theoretical discussion of what he calls desultory reading a form of unsystematic perusal of writing frequently employed by Enlightenment thinkers By surveying the printed past alongside the digital present the book treats eighteenth century writing as its topic while essentially exemplifying its rhetorical approach More than an exercise in quotation this intellectual history offers illuminating readings of fragmentary literary works and confrontations with neoclassical and contemporary theories of metaphor. The book's entries complicate received ideas about Locke's blank slate question. M. H. Abrams claims about mirrors and lamps and chart changing frequencies of metal metaphors in a moment of industrial revolution. The book also responds to current anxieties about reading and the mass digitization of literature touching on recent discussions of distant reading, shallow reading, and surface reading. Promoting critical and creative anachronism, Metaphors of Mind redefines the notion of an archive in the age of Amazon and Google Books. Reading Autoethnography

James M. Salvo, 2019-10-22
Reading Autoethnography situates autoethnographic insights within the context of two fundamental concerns of critical qualitative inquiry: justice and love. Through philosophical engagement, it gives close readings of written passages taken from leading autoethnographers and frames the philosophical project of autoethnography as one that is both political and interpersonal. It does this to highlight how autoethnographic lessons can allow us to think through how we may achieve a flourishing for all something that is both related to justice as it pertains to the political and when situations are in excess of justice related to love as it pertains to feeling at home in the world with others. As such, this book will be of interest to those who have a burgeoning interest in autoethnography and seasoned autoethnographers alike, anyone interested in critical qualitative inquiry as a discourse promoting justice and love and any scholar who has encountered the ethical question of "What ought we do?"
