starting point the decentralization of work of Betty Leirner towards official art circuits covering the most important

Klein, 2018-01-01 A brand new look at the extremely beautiful if underappreciated later works of one of the most inventive artists of the 20th century Between 1935 and his death at midcentury Henri Matisse 1869 1954 undertook many decorative projects and commissions These include mural paintings stained glass ceramic tiles lead crystal pieces carpets tapestries fashion fabrics and accessories work that has received no significant treatment until now By presenting a wealth of new insights and unpublished material including from the artist s own correspondence John Klein an internationally acclaimed specialist in the art of Matisse offers a richer and more balanced view of Matisse s ambitions and achievements in the often neglected later phases of his career Matisse designed many of these decorations in the innovative and widely admired medium of the paper cut out whose function and significance Klein reevaluates Matisse and Decoration also opens a window onto the revival and promotion following World War II of traditional French decorative arts as part of France s renewed sense of cultural preeminence For the first time the idea of the decorative in Matisse s work and the actual decorations he designed for specific settings are integrated in one account amounting to an understanding of this modern master s work that is simultaneously more nuanced and more comprehensive Matisse Rebecca A. Rabinow, Dorthe Aagesen, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2012 Throughout his long career Henri Matisse 1869 1954 continually expanded the boundaries of his art By repeating images in pairs trios and series he conducted an ongoing dialogue with his earlier works in order to as he put it push further and deeper into true painting In this fresh approach to a much studied artist prominent scholars from the United States and Europe examine more than sixty works in concise chapters that focus on this aspect of Matisse s working process From early pairs such as Young Sailor I and II 1906 and Le

Lexe I and II 1907 8 through a series of late studio scenes from Vence 1946 48 Matisse is shown revisiting a given theme with the aim of devising innovative often radical solutions to such problems as how to portray light handle paint select colors and manipulate perspective New technical studies of the early paired works and photographs documenting the evolution of his later paintings help to elucidate Matisse's complex evolution. In numerous excerpts from letters and interviews he is revealed as an artist who regularly questioned himself and his methods a man of powerful intellect who regarded each new painting as an adventure. A significant addition to art historical literature Matisse In Search of True Painting is a revelatory study of a seminal figure in 20th century modernism.

Page 4 of cover The Pictorial Art of El Greco Livia Stoenescu, 2025-10-01 The Pictorial Art of El Greco Transmaterialities Temporalities and Media investigates El Greco's pictorial art as foundational to the globalising trends manifested in the visual culture of early modernity. It also exposes the figurative semantic and allegorical senses that El Greco created to challenge an Italian Renaissance centered discourse. Even though he was guided by the unprecedented burgeoning of devotional art in the post Tridentine decades and by the expressive possibilities of earlier religious artifacts especially those inherited from the apostolic past the author demonstrates that El Greco forged his own independent trajectory. While his paintings have been studied in relation to the Italian and Spanish school traditions his pictorial art in a global Mediterranean context continues to receive scant attention. Taking a global perspective as its focus the book sheds new light on El Greco's highly original contribution to early Mediterranean and multi institutional configurations of the Christian faith in Byzantium Venice Rome Toledo and Madrid.

Henri Matisse Shirley Neilsen Blum, 2010-11-16 The colorful painterly uplifting and often joyous works of Henri Matisse are critical in the history of modern art. Throughout his many years as a painter the celebrated artist kept returning to one particular subject the windowed interior. Henri Matisse Rooms with a View explores in depth for the first time the full significance of the window in Matisse's thinking about interior and exterior space. Matisse studied and rearranged his rooms constantly when he lived in hotels and small apartments his living quarters usually doubled as his studio. In a continuous engagement with these spaces he produced not only singular masterpieces but also developed a theme as rich as the traditional landscape or portrait. In each new phase of his art and with every change of residence Matisse reinvented the theme of the window. Distinguished art historian Shirley Neilsen Blum analyzes more than fifty paintings starting with the early Studio Under the Eves 1903 a traditional darkened room with a small brilliant window through Harmony in Red 1908 with its startling use of color pattern and line to the more abstract work created during World War I such as The Piano Lesson 1916. After the war Matisse moved to Nice Tall French windows that open upon a balcony and overlook the Mediterranean define many of the paintings from these years. By the late 1940s the window is so bound to the structure of the flattened space that it is barely differentiated from a painting or piece of tapestry hanging on the wall. The luxuriously illustrated volume culminates in one of Matisse's greatest and most original works the Chapel of the Rosary 1947-51 at Vence where instead of imitating light and color in paint he manipulated actual light through the colored glass of the windows. This insightful volume reveals not only the key role of the windowed interior in Matisse's oeuvre but also presents an overview of the artist's remarkable and varied career and shows how his work paved the way for some of the most radical abstract painting of the twentieth century.

Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior Professor Erin J Campbell, 2015-07-28 Drawing on a wide range of visual and historical sources this study examines the remarkable flowering largely overlooked in portraiture scholarship of portraits of old women in Northern Italy and especially Bologna during the second half of the sixteenth century. Erin Campbell argues that these images of unidentified women provide an opportunity to present new conceptual frameworks and question our assumptions about old age portraiture and the domestic interior.

Henri Matisse Samantha Friedman, Flavia Frigeri, Stephan Lohrengel, 2014 Reconsiders the cut outs including the materials and methods the artist's environmental ambitions for them tensions between art and decoration and between drawing and color.
