Strange Holiness:

Strange Holiness Robert Peter Tristram Coffin, 1935 Strange Holiness R. P. T. Coffin, 1931 Stranger in a Strange Land George Prochnik, 2017-03-21 Taking his lead from his subject Gershom Scholem the 20th century thinker who cracked open Jewish theology and history with a radical reading of Kabbalah Prochnik combines biography and memoir to counter our contemporary political crisis with an original and urgent reimagining of the future of Israel In Stranger in a Strange Land Prochnik revisits the life and work of Gershom Scholem whose once prominent reputation as a Freud like interpreter of the inner world of the Cosmos has been in eclipse in the United States He vividly conjures Scholem's upbringing in Berlin and compellingly brings to life Scholem's transformative friendship with Walter Benjamin the critic and philosopher In doing so he reveals how Scholem's frustration with the bourgeois ideology of Germany during the First World War led him to discover Judaism Kabbalah and finally Zionism as potent counter forces to Europe's suicidal nationalism Prochnik's own years in the Holy Land in the 1990s brings him to question the stereotypical intellectual and theological constructs of Jerusalem and to rediscover the city as a physical place rife with the unruliness and fecundity of nature Prochnik ultimately suggests that a new form of ecological pluralism must now inherit the historically energizing role once played by Kabbalah and Zionism in Jewish thought The Christian Witness and Advocate of Bible Holiness ,1899

Sacred Space in Israel and Palestine Marshall J. Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2013-06-19 Religion and religious nationalism have long played a central role in many ethnic and national conflicts and the importance of religion to national identity means that territorial disputes can often focus on the contestation of holy places and sacred territory Looking at the case of Israel and Palestine this book highlights the nexus between religion and politics through the process of classifying holy places giving them meaning and interpreting their standing in religious and civil law within governmental policy and within international and local communities Written by a team of renowned scholars from within and outside the region this book follows on from Holy Places in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict Confrontation and Co existence to provide an insightful look into the politics of religion and space Examining Jerusalem's holy basin from a variety of perspectives and disciplines it provides unique insights into the way Jewish Christian and Muslim authorities scholars and jurists regard sacred space and the processes grass roots and official by which spaces become holy in the eyes of particular communities Filling an important gap in the literature on Middle East peacemaking the book will be of interest to scholars and students of the Middle East conflict resolution political science urban studies and history of religion I Like Being Catholic Michael Leach, Therese J. Natural Communion Gabriel Ricci, 2019-06-03 The academic treatment of the environment and nature since the 1980s has been formalized in sub disciplines like environmental history environmental philosophy ecocriticism and eco spirituality Within these disciplines the concept of nature has been variously employed to reorient humanity to a holistic moral standard In each case there is general consensus that inquiry ought to turn on moral considerations of the interaction of humans and the environment with implied admonitions to live sustainably Lending credence to the Earth as a superorganism in its own right these modern ecological expressions can be traced to Rachel Carson s revelations in Silent Spring However they have a long pre history which appears in monistic philosophy the spirit of Deism in both Romanticism and the Enlightenment and in political expressions of the idea of Nature s God designed to promote a secular vision of the state and to overturn predatory religious rivalries With this literary momentum Natural Communion volume 40 of Religion and Public Life gathers interdisciplinary essays which reconfigure humanity within an ecotheological anthropology and which treat the idea of the sacred from the perspective of an Earth centered spirituality thus redefining humanity s response to ecological challenges and initiating a new status within a more expansive cosmology complete with a naturalized conception of Divine Reality
