Strange Invasion:

The (Un)Welcome Stranger Jeff Morgan, 2023-01-05 This book explores the possibilities of intercultural training through literature especially as related to collegiate study abroad programs It presents a behavioral analysis of American literary characters through the lens of Milton Bennett s Developmental Model of Intercultural Sensitivity which identifies sensitivity to cultural differences within a six stage developmental continuum The literary characters studied in this work all undergo an early separation which forces them to experience and relate to different worldviews Moby Dick s Ishmael leaves land for an epic whaling adventure Hester is forced to live on the outskirts of town in The Scarlet Letter The nameless protagonist of The Country of the Pointed Firs leaves the city for the country The title character of The American emigrates to Europe Ellison s narrator in Invisible Man experiences a series of separations starting at his college acceptance For Whom the Bell Tolls Robert Jordan leaves his Montana teaching job to fight in the Spanish Civil War The book tracks each character s progress along Bennett s continuum demonstrating how people both real and fictional can manifest intercultural sensitivity through exposure to different people places and experiences The book concludes with a firsthand account of how the author s own students advanced along Bennett s continuum themselves following an intensive study of Ernest Hemingway s novels and a study abroad experience in Havana Cuba

The Prophecies of Isaiah Thomas Kelly Cheyne, 1884

The Form of Love James Kuzner, 2021-08-03 Can poetry articulate something about love that philosophy cannot The Form of Love argues that it can In close readings of seven metaphysical poems the book shows how poets of the early modern period and beyond use poetic form to turn philosophy to other ends in order not to represent the truth about love but to create a virtual experience of love in all its guises The Form of Love shows how verse creates love that can t exist without poetry s specific affordances and how poems can in their impossibility prompt love s radical re imagining Like the philosophies on which they draw metaphysical poems imagine love as an intense form of non sovereignty of giving up control They even imagine love as a liberating bondage to a friend a beloved a saint a God or a garden Yet these poems create strange striking versions of such love made in rather than through the devices structures and forces where love appears Tracing how poems think Kuzner argues requires an intimate form of reading close even too close attention to and thinking with the text Showing how poetry thinks of love otherwise than other fields the book reveals how poetry and philosophy can nevertheless enter into a relation that is itself like love

The Empire of the Ptolemies John Pentland Mahaffy, 1895

Dark Revival: The Kaneki Within Me Jerry L Bridges, Supernatural Revival Humanity in Peril In the 21st century a kind hearted college student accidentally travels to an era of supernatural resurgence only to encounter a ghostly food delivery on his first day A disastrous start watch as Zhao Tianyi uses his power to draw cards from all realms to sweep through this terrifying world At midnight the cries of a female ghost begging for mercy can always be heard Even the Ghost King avoids his path Is this the distortion of human nature or the collapse of morality Witness how Zhao Tianyi grows stronger step by step
