Jonathan Swift and the Arts Joseph McMinn, 2010 Swift is a shrewd and humorous observer of the changing artistic and cultural scene in both Ireland and England and his views on these changes in public taste are an important albeit neglected part of his biography His correspondence especially his Journal to Stella shows us someone very aware of the various arts and of their lively emergence from the enclosed world of the Puritan era Many of Swift's friends and acquaintances were serious collectors of paintings sculpture coins medals and Swift himself eventually enjoyed an interesting and revealing collection of artistic artifacts as this study shows Jonathan Swift Nigel Wood,2014-06-11 This collection of critical thinking situates the satire of Jonathan Swift within both its eighteenth century contexts and our modern anxieties about personal identity and communication Augustan satire at its most provocative is not simply concerned with the public matters of politics or religion but also offers a precise medium in which to express the paradox of ironic detachment amidst deep conviction The critics chosen for this volume demonstrate the complexity of Swift s work Its four sections explore matters of authorial identity the relation between Swift s writing and its historical context the full range of his comments on gender and his deployment of metaphor and irony to engage the reader Swift has often been regarded as a writer who anticipated many twentieth century cultural preoccupations and this volume provides an opportunity to test just how modern he actually was It also provides an answer to those who would wish to simplify his writing as that of Tory and misogynist The theoretical perspectives of the contributors are lucidly explained and their critical terms located in the wider contexts of contemporary theory in the introduction and headnotes The volume places Swift historically within the philosophical and religious traditions of eighteenth century thought Natural history, antiquities, naturalist's calendar, observations on various parts of nature, and poems Gilbert White,1877 The Selborne Magazine and "Nature Notes," the Organ of the Selborne Society ,1899 Nature in Downland, William Henry Hudson,1900 Nature Notes ,1890 The Works of Dean Swift Jonathan Swift,1882 Nature ,1884 Nature Sir Norman Lockyer,1884 Landscape Architecture ,1996
