an incomplete composition of brick buildings and informal gardens into an ordered landscape of white classical temples the image of Washington D C was transformed by visionary planning and implementation in response to the political and artistic movements of the early twentieth century The U S Commission of Fine Arts was created by Congress in 1910 as an independent design review agency to guide the ongoing work of representing national ideals in the design of the capital city This comprehensive history explores the evolving role of the Commission of Fine Arts in the context of the artistic social and political circumstances that fostered the commission s creation and the subsequent trends that have informed its decisions
