Seduced by Mrs. Robinson Beverly Gray,2017-11-07 An Amazon Best Book of the Month Gray writes smartly and insightfully The book as a whole offers a fascinating look at how this movie tells a timeless story The Washington Post Mrs Robinson you re trying to seduce me Aren t you When The Graduate premiered in December 1967 its filmmakers had only modest expectations for what seemed to be a small sexy art house comedy adapted from an obscure first novel by an eccentric twenty four year old There was little indication that this offbeat story a young man just out of college has an affair with one of his parents friends and then runs off with her daughter would turn out to be a monster hit with an extended run in theaters and seven Academy Award nominations The film catapulted an unknown actor Dustin Hoffman to stardom with a role that is now permanently engraved in our collective memory While turning the word plastics into shorthand for soulless work and a corporate consumer culture The Graduate sparked a national debate about what was starting to be called the generation gap Now in time for this iconic film s fiftieth birthday author Beverly Gray offers up a smart close reading of the film itself as well as vivid never before revealed details from behind the scenes of the production including all the drama and decision making of the cast and crew For movie buffs and pop culture fanatics Seduced by Mrs Robinson brings to light The Graduate s huge influence on the future of filmmaking And it explores how this unconventional movie rocked the late sixties world both reflecting and changing the era s views of sex work and marriage     Women and New Hollywood Aaron Hunter,Martha Shearer,2023-05-12

The 1970s has often been hailed as a great moment for American film as a generation of New Hollywood directors like Scorsese Coppola and Altman offered idiosyncratic visions of what movies could be Yet the auteurist discourse hailing these directors as the sole authors of their films has obscured the important creative roles women played in the 1970s American film industry Women and New Hollywood revises our understanding of this important era in American film by examining the contributions that women made not only as directors but also as screenwriters editors actors producers and critics Including essays on film history film texts and the decade s film theory and criticism this collection showcases the rich and varied cinematic products of women s creative labor as well as the considerable barriers they faced It considers both women working within and beyond the Hollywood film industry reconceptualizing New Hollywood by bringing it into dialogue with other American cinemas of the 1970s By valuing the many forms of creative labor involved in film production this collection offers exciting alternatives to the auteurist model and new ways of appreciating the themes and aesthetics of 1970s American film     THE HEARTBREAK KID ,2007     Australian Film, 1978-1994 Scott Murray,Raffaele
