Taming Of Romanticism:

The Taming of Romanticism Virgil Nemoianu, 1984 Looking at a broad spectrum of writers English French German Italian Russian and other East Europeans Virgil Nemoianu offers here a coherent characterization of the period 1815 1848 This he calls the era of the domestication of romanticism The explosive visionary core of romanticism is seen to give way after the defeat of Napoleon to an expanded and softer version reflecting middle class values This later form of romanticism is characterized by moralizing efforts to reform society a sentimental yearning for the tranquility of home and hearth and persistent faith in the individual alongside a new skepticism shattered ideals and consequent irony Expanding the application of the term Biedermeier which has been useful in describing this period in German literature Nemoianu provides a new framework for understanding these years in a wider European context The House in Russian Literature Joost van Baak, 2009-01-01 The domestic theme has a tremendous anthropological literary and cultural significance The purpose of this book is to analyse and interpret the most important realisations and tendencies of this thematic complex in the history of Russian literature It is the first systematic book length exploration of the meaning and development of the House theme in Russian literature of the past 200 years It studies the ideological psychological and moral meanings which Russian cultural and literary tradition have invested in the house or projected on it in literary texts Central to this study s approach is the concept of the House Myth consisting of a set of basic fabular elements and a set of general types of House images This House Myth provides the general point of reference from which the literary works were analyzed and compared With the help of this analytical procedure characteristics of individual authors could be described as well as recurrent patterns and features discerned in the way Russian literature dealt with the House and its thematics thus reflecting characteristics of Russian literary world pictures Russian mentalities and Russian attitudes towards life This book is of interest for students of Russian literature as well as for those interested in the House as a cultural and literary topic in the semiotics of literature and in relations between culture anthropology and literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev, 2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world s cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people s conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations Flix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal

The Psychology of Romantic Love Nathaniel Branden, 2008-01-31 What love is why love is born why it sometimes grows and why it sometimes dies Have you ever wondered how romantic love evolves What the difference is between mature and immature love What role sex plays in romantic love and whether love necessarily implies sexual exclusivity And most important how can we make love last Originally published in 1980 this updated edition of The Psychology of Romantic Love explores the nature of romantic love on many levels the philosophical the historical the sociological and the physiological Nathaniel Branden explains why so many people say that romantic love is just not possible in today's world and drawing on his experience with thousands of couples finds that such love is still a possibility for anyone who understands its essence and is willing to accept its challenges Branden sees it as a pathway not only to extraordinary joy but also to profound self discovery His vision of love is thoroughly appropriate to our time and grounded in our humanness
