The Bay Of Strangers:

The People and the Bay Nancy B. Bouchier, Ken Cruikshank, 2016-01-15 This masterful social and environmental history raises questions about how decisions being made about the natural world today will shape the cities of tomorrow In 1865 John Smoke braved the ice on Burlington Bay to go spearfishing Soon after he was arrested by a fishery inspector and then convicted by a magistrate who chastised him for thinking that he was at liberty to do as he pleased with Her Majesty's property With this story Nancy Bouchier and Ken Cruikshank launch their history of the relationship between the people of Hamilton Ontario and Hamilton Harbour aka Burlington Bay From the time of European settlement through to the city's rise as an industrial power townsfolk struggled with nature and with one another to champion their particular vision of the bay as a place to live work and play As Smoke discovered the outcomes of those struggles reflected the changing nature of power in an industrial city From efforts to conserve the fishery in the 1860s to current attempts to revitalize a seriously polluted harbour each generation has tried to create what it believed would be a livable and prosperous city Down by the Bay

Matthew Booker, 2020-06-09 San Francisco Bay is the largest and most productive estuary on the Pacific Coast of North America It is also home to the oldest and densest urban settlements in the American West Focusing on human inhabitation of the Bay since Ohlone times Down by the Bay reveals the ongoing role of nature in shaping that history From birds to oyster pirates from gold miners to farmers from salt ponds to ports this is the first history of the San Francisco Bay and Delta as both a human and natural landscape It offers invaluable context for current discussions over the best management and use of the Bay in the face of sea level rise *The Route Book of Devon: a Guide for the Stranger and Tourist ...
