The Bend For Home:

The Bend for Home Dermot Healy, 2016-07-05 One day years after he s moved away from his childhood home in rural Ireland Dermot Healy returns to care for his ailing mother Out of the blue she hands him the forgotten diary he had kept as a fifteen year old He is amazed to find the makings of the writer he has become as well as taken aback at the changes his memory has wrought The silhouettes who have haunted his past come back to inhabit his pages his father a kind policeman who plays cards and drinks stout with his cronies his mother whose stories young Dermot has heard so often that he believes they are his own or Aunt Maisie whose early disappointment in love has left her both dreamy and cynical Funny direct and moving The Bend For Home is a family portrait like no other and a hugely engaging account of a childhood in small town Ireland
