Republic Studios Richard M. Hurst, 2007-03-15 The Hollywood studios of the 1930s 40s and 50s were rarely concerned with film as an art form this was especially true of those specializing in the B film Of these Republic Pictures Corporation was the finest Their quality B action pictures and serials influenced the industry and the moviegoing public resulting in greater public acceptance The Republic's roster of talent included John Wayne Roy Rogers and Gene Autry and the serials it produced featured such iconic figures as Dick Tracy Captain America Zorro and The Lone Ranger In Republic Studios Between Poverty Row and the Majors author Richard Hurst documents the influence and significance of this major B studio Originally published in 1979 this book provides a brief overview of the studio's economic structure and charts its output Hurst examines the various genres represented by the studio including the comedies of Judy Canova and westerns featuring Autry Rogers and The Three Mesquiteers The book addresses the non series B films Republic produced as well as rare A films such as Wake of the Red Witch Sands of Iwo Jima and John Ford's The Quiet Man all of which starred John Wayne This new edition of Republic Studios with two additional expanded chapters on serials a new introduction and an epilogue brings the Republic story up to date This fascinating look at Republic chronicles the impact the studio had on American cultural history from the mid 1940s to the mid 1950s and examines the studio's role in Hollywood history and its demise in the late 50s     The Republic Pictures Checklist Len D. Martin, 2015-08-13 Republic Pictures Corporation began as a motion picture laboratory in 1915 By 1935 Republic had become a studio and released its first movie Westward Ho starring a young John Wayne who would stay with Republic for the next 17 years Republic would go on to produce highly successful Westerns starring singing cowboys Gene Autry and Roy Rogers as well as serial adventure series The studio cranked out so many exciting not to mention money making serials that it became known as The Thrill Factory Occasionally Republic would produce and distribute A features such as Macbeth and The Quiet Man but it was the B Westerns and adventure serials that they knew best how to produce and market Until its demise in 1959 Republic fed hungry moviegoers with a steady diet of B Westerns serials dramas series pictures and musicals The Republic Pictures Checklist provides a full listing of Republic releases with plot synopses release dates alternate titles chapter titles and awards All of Republic's output including documentaries and training films is included     Motion Picture Review Digest, 1937     A Guide to American Crime Films of the Thirties Larry Langman, Daniel Finn, 1995-02-28 Recent crime films such as Scarface the Dirty Harry series and The Godfather have captured the American imagination but they owe a large debt to the early crime talkies such as The Public Enemy Paul Muni's Scarface and Little Caesar More than 1 000 entries are featured in this volume complete with the names of directors screen writers and major players offering a wealth of data supported by plot evaluations For the serious student of crime films this work provides a comprehensive treatment of the genre It is the only one volume work that includes all crime sub genres detective mystery cops and robbers and courtroom dramas in addition to gangster films The period between the end of the silent film 1927 and the general acceptance of the sound film 1929 is often referred to as a transition period The majority of theaters were not wired for sound so many films were released in both silent and sound versions Some added only sound effects or music to the sound track while others offered only brief segments of sound The early 1930s marked the end of this transition period and firmly established the sound era This volume pays homage to these early often crude melodramas The authors aim to preserve the memories of these films for their own generation and to introduce these works to a new generation thirsty for entertainment and knowledge     The Great Detective Pictures James Robert Parish, Michael R. Pitts, 1990-08 Parish and Pitts score again with this thorough and well written catalog of some 400 feature length detective films dating from 1905 to 1988 CHOICE     Famous Movie Detectives Michael R. Pitts, 1979 Pitts looks at the celluloid careers of more than three dozen sleuths including Arsene Lupin Hercule Poirot Mike Hammer Miss Jane Marple Perry Mason Philip Marlowe The Shadow Sherlock Holmes and The Whistler and a number of screen gumshoes with brief movie careers and TV detectives Each chapter highlights a different detective covering the character's films the performers who played him or her the character's image in other media stage radio television recordings etc plus a detailed filmography and a bibliography of the fictional works about each detective With additions and corrections to the base volume and scores of photographs      Sound Films, 1927-1939 Alan G. Fetrow, 1992
