A biting satire of Bolshevism, it was written in 1925 at the height of the NEP period when communism appeared to be relaxing in the Soviet Union. It is generally interpreted as an allegory of the Communist revolution and the revolution's misguided attempt to radically transform mankind. Its publication was initially prohibited in the Soviet Union but it circulated in samizdat until it was officially released in the country in 1987. It was almost immediately turned into a TV movie which was aired in late 1988 on First Programme First Channel of Soviet Television, gaining almost universal acclaim and attracting many readers to the original Bulgakov text. Since then the novella has become a cultural phenomenon in Russia, known and discussed by people from schoolchildren to politicians. It has become a subject of critical argument, was filmed in Russian and Italian language versions and was adapted in English as a play and an opera.
