The Beauty Of Creation:

The Beauty of the Trinity Justin Coyle, 2023-01-03 In this book Justin Shaun Coyle remembers the theology of beauty of the forgotten Summa Halensis an early thirteenth century text written by Franciscan friars at the University of Paris Many scholars vaunt the Summa Halensis conceived but not drafted entirely by Alexander of Hales d 1245 for its teaching on beauty and its influence on giants of the high scholastic idiom But few read the text s teaching theologically as a teaching about God The Beauty of the Trinity A Reading of the Summa Halensis proposes an interpretation of the Summa s beauty teaching as deeply and inexorably theological even trinitarian The book takes as its keystone a passage in which the Summa Halensis identifies beauty with the sacred order of the divine persons If beauty names a trinitarian structure rather than a divine attribute then the text teaches beauty where it teaches trinity So The Beauty of the Trinity trawls the massive Summa Halensis for beauty across passages largely ignored by the literature Taking seriously the Summa s own definition of beauty rather than imposing onto the text modernity s narrow aesthetic categories allows Coyle to identify beauty nearly everywhere across the text s pages in its teaching on the transcendental determinations of being on the trinity proper on creation on psychology on grace A medieval text must teach beauty that appreciates beauty theologically beyond the constricted and anachronistic boundaries that often limit study of medieval aesthetics Readers of medieval theology and theological aesthetics both will find in The Beauty of the Trinity a depiction of how an early scholastic summa thinks beauty according to the mystery of the trinity

The Beauty of the Infinite David Bentley Hart, 2004-10-29 The Beauty of the Infinite is a splendid extended essay in theological aesthetics David Bentley Hart here meditates on the power of a Christian understanding of beauty and sublimity to rise above the violence both philosophical and literal characteristic of the postmodern world The book begins by tracing the shifting use and nature of metaphysics in the thought of Kant Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger Lyotard Derrida Deleuze Nancy Levinas and others Hart pays special attention to Nietzsche's famous narrative of the will to power a narrative largely adopted by the world today and he offers an engaging revision though not rejection of the genealogy of nihilism thereby highlighting the significant interruption that Christian thought introduced into the history of metaphysics This discussion sets the stage for a retrieval of the classic Christian account of beauty and sublimity and of the relation of both to the question of being Written in the form of a dogmatica minora this main section of the book offers a pointed reading of the Christian story in four moments or parts Trinity creation salvation and eschaton Through a combination of narrative and argument throughout Hart ends up demonstrating the power of Christian metaphysics not only to withstand the critiques of modern and postmodern thought but also to move well beyond them Strikingly original and deeply rewarding The Beauty of the Infinite is both a constructively critical account of the history of metaphysics and a compelling contribution to it The Beauty of Nature a Revelation of God John Dowden,1884 *The Biblical Museum: a Collection of Notes, Explanatory, Homiletic, and Illustrative, on the Holy Scriptures ... Antiquity and the Middle Ages theology creates experience and in certain modern and post modern currents experience creates theology an end becomes a means With regard to Antiquity the Middle Ages and Modernity the author examines what is meant by religious experience and drafts the evolution of an intellectualistic concept that changes into an emotionally charged concept Two research questions however recur what do the different writers during different periods mean by religious experience and what is the object of that experience     The Apocryphal Books ,1889     The Natural Theology of Natural Beauty Richard St. John Tyrwhitt,1882     The Sense of Beauty, the Idea of Beauty, and the Beauty of Nature Alfred H.
