MISSION OF EMPIRE Earthmen had colonized hundreds of planets in the four centuries of deep space exploration independent new civilizations founded by the discontented and adventurous of Terra Trouble was they were too independent and the Terran government had ambitions for a space empire A giant battle cruiser went out into the starlanes with instructions to persuade the colonial planets to join the Empire and with a couple of thousand troops to back up the persuasion It looked like an interesting if easy mission after all what kind of opposition could a bunch of backwoods planets offer to the most advanced military power in the Galaxy Quite a lot as it turned out and all of it wildly unexpected One of the old pros of science fiction Eric Frank Russell has in THE GREAT EXPLOSION written a fast paced and compelling adventure a fascinating look at a possible tomorrow A satirical Classic      How to Live Forever Stephen R L Clark, 2008-01-28

Immortality is a subject which has long been explored and imagined by science fiction writers In his intriguing new study Stephen R L Clark argues that the genre of science fiction writing allows investigation of philosophical questions about immortality without the constraints of academic philosophy He reveals how fantasy accounts of issues such as resurrection disembodied survival reincarnation and devices or drugs for preserving life can be used as an important resource for philosophical inquiry and examines how a society of immortals might function through a reading of the vampire myth How to Live Forever is a compelling study which introduces students and professional philosophers to the possibilities of using science fiction in their work It includes extensive suggestions for further reading both fictional and philosophical and examines the work of such major science fiction authors as Arthur C Clarke Frank Herbert Larry Niven William Gibson and Colin Wilson      Index to Science Fiction Anthologies and Collections William Contento, 1978      Anarchist Studies , 1999
