The Best Pastor You Ever Had:

The Pastor in Profile Adolph Bedsole,Ralph G. Turnbull,2021-05-03 This is a stimulating and provocative work The writer has dipped his pen in an acid which smarts when applied but its application is always in love and with goodwill Abundant humor and laughter enable the reader to see himself in a mirror The preacher under this treatment will benefit and be enriched morally and spiritually Because the preacher is prone to tell others how to live this book should bring a searchlight upon his own soul Here is a plumbline of judgment and a method of self scrutiny The message is for the still hour and the chambers of imagery wherein the pastor dwells The author s style is lively and colorful It moves swiftly and keeps one interested and intrigued The stab and thrust of truth comes to the conscience Occasionally there are lapses into slang but possibly the author intends this in satirical vein Throughout the provocative element is well expressed and in his own way he reveals much of what he has felt and experienced In self reference he is free from egotism This is good No one will accuse him of being pharisaical or holier than thou Periodically ministers need to read a book of this kind to see himself as others see him Let it be read then with open mind and obedient heart in the sight of the Lord does the Lord require of me In this outstanding collection of meditations James Killen examines many of today's hot button issues with an eye toward helping readers think through their beliefs and responsibilities Mindful of our call to live in faithfulness to God's purpose each essay draws on the Bible and the Christian faith to discern how God would have us respond to the emerging situations of our world's history What Does The Lord Require is topical inspiring reading and with thoughtful discussion questions at the end of each meditation it's an excellent resource for adult classes or study groups as well as for a sermon series that is sure to connect with congregations Among the issues addressed are religious pluralism economic justice materialism environmental stewardship gender roles suicide abortion personal integrity homosexuality AIDS race relations war The timid pulpit is too often the platform of pastors who choose not to unsettle their parishioners As a result words that address the critical social and moral issues of our day go unspoken The messages of this book inspire the reader to new heights of courage as these difficult issues are presented with clear forthright challenges You will be informed and motivated as the cost of discipleship awakens your Christian journey in the 21st century Joe A Wilson United Methodist bishop James Killen does a remarkable job of reminding us that being a Christian is more than individual religiosity Rather it encompasses every facet of our existence personal and corporate These meditations explore issues that Christians cannot afford to ignore A must read Brig Gen Hiram Doc Jones USAF retired Former Deputy Chief Air Force Chaplain Service James L Killen has pastored a variety of congregations during a 45 year career in the ministry ranging from a small open country parish in northeast Texas to Trinity United Methodist Church in Beaumont Texas a 2 000 member church with a television ministry serving all of southeast Texas and southwestern Louisiana A graduate of the University of Houston and Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University Killen's work has appeared in several publications including Preaching Pulpit Digest Circuit Rider The Upper Room and the Abingdon Preaching Annual He is also the author of Who Do You Say That I Am Baptist Missionary Magazine ,1878 Volumes 7 77 80 83 include 13th 83rd 86th 89th annual report of the American Baptist missionary union The Pastor's Note John L. Spurgeon,2017-03-06 Throughout the gospel we find how Christ used parables to describe our personal relationship with God He took the tangible things of life as example to illustrate a spiritual life in Christ The devotional before you has one hundred devotions many based on parables of my life and stories I recall Why one hundred One hundred represents fullness and a completion as well as principle of return My first hope is that your reading this will not only help you to recognize that everything is spiritual but also give you an opportunity to know and experience more of God's presence Second my hope is that completing this devotion won't mark an end or accomplishment but that you will be spiritually primed to pursue greater depths in an intimate relationship with our Savior And last with the principle of return I pray that you will continue to grow and be further profitable to God's kingdom and purpose taking what God gives in abundance and pouring it over into the lives of others Unity ,1884 The Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1879 reports of committees of the house of representatives ,1876 Christian Advocate and
