causes untold suffering to millions throughout the world From a Christian perspective it should go without saying that we ought to work towards the eradication of this evil The Bible however which all Christian traditions recognize as normative for faith and practice reflects an era in which slavery was regarded as the norm This raises a question can it have anything to say to the church about human trafficking or should it be discarded as irrelevant and anachronistic Drawing on history and literature to help us bridge the hermeneutical gap between the texts and our own age this study presents an examination of key biblical material on slavery and prostitution It suggests that the Bible does have much to say that can inform Christian
