The Challenge of Peace Catholic Church. National Conference of Catholic Bishops, 1983 We write this letter from the perspective of Catholic faith Faith does not insulate us from the daily challenges of life but intensifies our desire to address them precisely in light of the Gospel which has come to us in the person of the risen Christ Through the resources of faith and reason we desire in this letter to provide hope for people in our day and direction toward a world freed of the nuclear threat Summary

The Challenge of Human Rights David Keane, Yvonne McDermott, 2012-01-01 This volume represents a genuine attempt to think beyond the realms of what exists to reflect on ideas postulated in the past that could be of great salience in the future It presents the reader with a key question to what extent are the contemporary concepts of human rights and the systems that support them equipped to address the challenges of a changed world By thinking through some of the ideas of the past with a set of promising young scholars alongside more established names readers will gain a sense of how human rights politics have shaped the current regime while also becoming attuned to the extent to which new directions and mechanisms can be forged in the future Many of the individuals whose contributions are encompassed in this volume have strong links to the Irish Centre for Human Rights at the National University of Ireland Galway an institution that has had a significant impact in its first decade of existence under the stewardship of Professor William A Schabas This volume celebrates the success of the institution by showcasing some of the talent it has generated and is likely to be of avid interest to all who care about the future of human rights From the foreword by Joshua Castellino Middlesex University UK the Challenge of Human Rights takes a detailed and exploratory approach to topics across the field of human rights and seeks to map a path for future research and policy development It examines contemporary approaches to established rights such as the right to peace and the protection against double jeopardy while also revisiting overlooked or forgotten rights and concepts such as slavery apartheid and the right to resist determining the optimal place for those rights in today's world the contributing authors outline lacunae in human rights law where rights could be established from voting rights for under 18s to rights for the dead to cultural and intellectual property rights and also apply completely new approaches to questions that have troubled human rights advocates for decades This innovative book will be essential reading for researchers and practitioners of human rights law political scientists historians and others who have a general interest in the future trajectory of human rights
