

CHILD CARE PROFESSIONAL 1 - LESSON 2: CHILD GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT, PART 1 EXAM QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Section 2.1 - Key Points - Answer-- The changing structure of the modern family affects children's learning as families have become more diverse.

Section 2.1 - Self Assessment: Describe Factors That Influence a Child's Growth and Development - Answer-Question 1: What effect can a lack of nurturing and responsive caregiving have on young children?

Answer 1: Lack of affectionate care and stimulation can cause delayed brain development and the inability to bond with others. This can impair the ability to form trusting relationships. Research indicates long-term learning disabilities and memory impairments can result from a lack of responsive care. These effects can prevent the child from achieving typical developmental milestones.

Question 2: When is sensory stimulation particularly vital?

Answer 2: Sensory stimulation is particularly vital during the first 24 months of life.

Question 3: What stage of development emphasizes using the senses to explore the world?

Answer 3: The sensorimotor stage emphasizes using the senses to explore the world.

Question 4: How can adults develop trusting relationships with children?

Answer 4: Showing joy, giving undivided attention, learning what's important to children, appreciating the unique participation of each child, respecting each child, showing interest in the individual needs of the child, and acknowledging each child.

Question 5: What are examples of modern family structures?

Answer 5: Variations in the modern family structure includes families with biological parents, step-parents, single parents, cohabiting parents, same-sex parents, foster parents, adoptive parents, and children being cared for by other relatives.

Question 6: Why is it important for caregivers to understand human growth and development?

Answer 6: It's important for caregivers to understand human growth and development to provide children with the quality of care and nurturing that the first five years of life demand. Caregivers must also be aware of the development that takes place during those years. Caregivers who begin to understand the real mean

Section 2.2 - Key Points - Answer--Growth and development occur in an orderly and sequential way.
