The Chopsticksfork Principle A Memoir And Manual:

The Chopsticks-fork Principle Cathy Bao Bean, 2002 Rooted in the telling of one family's life The Chopsticks Fork Principle A Memoir and Manual by Cathy Bao Bean is a story for all families In this humorous and poignant memoir the author an immigrant from China recounts how she figured out how to be herself as well as raise a son whose artist father did things like paint the lawn As Cathy Bao Bean attempts to satisfy disparate cultural norms she provides us with a unique window into the experience of a bicultural family The Chopsticks Fork Principle is also a manual that explains how anyone who steps outside the home can benefit by greater awareness of the diversity within and around us Publisher Undoing Whiteness in the Classroom Virginia Lea, Erma Jean Sims, 2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse for the initiated The New Asian Home Kendra Langeteig, 2009-09 The New Asian Home by Kendra Langeteig profiles 23 fascinating and original American homes inspired by the ancient architectural traditions of Asia Designed by some of today's foremost architects and designers principles fundamental to the serene aesthetics of classic Asian design balance harmony connection with nature are reinterpreted for the Western home

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Language Arts in Asia Christina DeCoursey, 2012-01-17 This volume is the first of a series contributing to the academic study of Language Arts as an English language teaching paradigm Language Arts has been widely used in native English speaking countries including Australia and New Zealand Its recent adoption into the second language teaching curriculum in Hong Kong as well as similar initiatives within secondary and tertiary education in mainland China enhances its interest to scholars studying second language teaching and learning in Asian contexts This book offers many papers and discussions of interest to teachers language professionals scholars and administrators Its chapters explore current topics in Language Arts research including trends in the rapprochement of stylistics and linguistics teaching approaches and learning outcomes At the same time they offer diverse theoretical and methodological approaches of interest to the practitioner and policy maker as well as the researcher The value of this volume lies particularly in strengthening the theoretical and methodological foundations of Language Arts The use of literature and the arts in humanist education has a long history within Europe being traditionally appreciated for its ability to transform leaders instill finer sensibilities and question social ills In its postcolonial incarnations as the traditional subject areas were informed by critical and linguistic theories language arts subject areas were less often used as they were understood to offer opportunities to analyse their functions as apology for leaders coopting the young and pacifying dissent but less often used to teach second language skills

Language Arts curricula arising since the 1980s have increasingly embraced authentic voices styles and genres Contemporary Language Arts curricula use literature to teach reading based and communication skills in conjunction with critical and creative thinking The movement of English language education beyond native English shores has placed Language Arts into a World Englishes frame and therefore its curricula have included the teaching ethics civics and intercultural sensitivity The explosion of media and digital communications of the 1990s led to the adoption of media literacy as a crucial Language Arts skill As digital innovations continue to impact the teaching of English Language Arts has adopted multiliteracies These developments are represented in the papers included in this volume Bust ,2003 US-China
