An Introduction to Standards-Based Reflective Practice for Middle and High School Teaching Elizabeth Spalding, Jesus Garcia, Joseph A. Braun, 2010-03-09 This easy to use introductory guide to teaching in contemporary middle and high schools provides teachers with the tools to become reflective practitioners. It shows pre and inservice teachers how to use standards to choose instructional materials and methods that are appropriate with particular students at a particular time in a particular setting for a particular purpose. While the authors are specialists in English and social studies this resource is appropriate for aspiring middle and high school teachers of any subject. With a personal voice that will appeal to readers this book links directly to the most recent version of standards for beginning teachers published by the Council of Chief State School Officers CCSSO. Illustrates how teachers can be reflective about rather than reactive to standards. Features an autobiographical approach to help readers understand how prior educational experiences may shape their future teaching. Contains numerous reflective vignettes by practicing teachers.
