Venus in the Dark Janell Hobson,2013-10-18 Western culture has long been fascinated by black women but a history of enslavement and colonial conquest has variously labeled black women's bodies as exotic and grotesque. In this remarkable cultural history of black female beauty Janell Hobson explores the enduring figure of the Hottentot Venus. In 1810 Saartjie Baartman was taken from South Africa to Europe where she was put on display at circuses, salons and museums and universities as the Hottentot Venus. The subsequent legacy of representations of black women's sexuality from Josephine Baker to Serena Williams to hip hop and dancehall videos continues to refer back to this persistent icon. This book analyzes the history of critical and artistic responses to this iconography by black women in contemporary photography, film, literature, music and dance.    The Making of a Jamaican Don Clifton Cameron,2010-11-24 Jamaican dons see themselves as leaders, protectors and nearly God-like figures. They see themselves as bigger than even the Prime Minister with the resources they have. They are not afraid of anyone. In The Making of a Jamaican Don author Clifton Cameron tells the story of these Jamaican dons: their history and the role they play in the governing of the Caribbean country. This story is told through the eyes of Spanner and Trinity, two youths from rural Jamaica who leave their homes in Kitson Town and travel to Kingston for a better life. But here their lives change in ways they could not have imagined. They find themselves embroiled in politics and the world of donship, eventually spending time in Jamaica's notorious General Penitentiary Prison. A true account of tragedy and death. The Making of a Jamaican Don highlights the links between dons, guns, drugs, police, politicians, public officials and corruption.    Materials Towards a Statistical Account of the Town and Island of Bombay ,1894    "The" Publications of the Thoresby Society ,1895    Gazetteer of the Bombay Presidency: Materials towards a statistical account of the town and island of Bombay (3 vols.) v. 1. History. v. 2. Trade and fortifications. v. 3. Administration ,1893
