The Christian Existentialist Bernhard Häring, 1968-03    Studies in Christian Existentialism John Macquarrie, 1966

More than any other modern philosophical movement existentialism has had a profound effect on the course of contemporary theology Bultmann Tillich and Barth have worked out their theological positions in response to or in dialogue with existential philosophy As its title implies this book is a collection of essays organized around a single theme One of the foremost examines the foundations and implications of this important movement In developing the existential approach to theology the author examines most of the major contemporary themes demythologizing the problem of the historical Jesus the challenge of logical positivism as they are stated by such modern philosophers and theologians as Heidegger Sartre Bultmann A J Ayer Teilhard de Chardin and Karl Rahner Publisher    Christianity and Existentialism William A. Earle, William Earle, James M. Edie, John Wild, 1963 Heidegger Sartre and the later existentialist philosophers inherited a world it has been said from which God is absent Contemporary philosophy begins in the momentous questioning of the Christian experience by such nineteenth century figures as Nietzsche and Dostoevsky But if existentialism is in some respects a beginning again it is in other respects linked to the classical world out of which Christianity arose and to certain themes in the writings of ancient and medieval Christians Renewal and innovation converge Addressing themselves to the general reader the three author philosophers consider both the contemporary and the perennial Book jacket    Unamuno, Berdyaev, Marcel C. The Christian Existentialist; the Philosophy and Theology of Self-fulfillment in Modern Society Bernhard Häring, 1968

Personalism and existentialism integrate essential values of our common Christian and humanitarian tradition The personalism that confronts the reader is a dispassionate pondering over the shocking events of our age It tries to discover the human experience It is intended as a challenge and an appeal to modern man to care for the wholeness of the human person and the meaningfulness and integrity of interpersonal relationships    Christianity and the Existentialists Carl Michalson, 1956 The chapters included in this volume were delivered in their original form as public lectures in Craig Chapel of Drew University during the academic year 1953-54 They comprise the fifteenth series of lectures to Christian Biography on a foundation established by President and Mrs Ezra Squier Tipple The selection of the participants in the lectureship followed easily upon the choice of the subject The lecturers were assembled under a commission entitled The Challenge of Christian Existentialism The major motive in this title is clear A cultural movement which is exercising so great an influence upon the reformulation of Christian thought deserves to be appraised Preface    The Christian Existentialist Bernhard
