The Bee Sting Deal:

The Bee Sting Deal George Beare, 1972 With the Bees Marcel Durieux, Anita Impagliazzo, 2024-11-12 Interested in keeping bees in a way that's beneficial for both you and the bees Experienced but dissatisfied with commercial beekeeping chemical treatments or the workload Or perhaps you're an urban beekeeper unsure how to do it bee friendly If so this is the guide you need This book offers a fresh approach to hobby beekeeping avoiding scaled down commercial techniques and unproven natural methods Instead it provides an integrated science based method tailored for small scale backyard beekeepers The book simplifies hive systems uses swarm catching to replace lost colonies and minimizes hive interventions making beekeeping less labor intensive more affordable and better aligned with bees natural behavior Written by experts in an engaging style this book is richly illustrated and comes with a companion website to keep you updated It's an invaluable reference for hobby beekeepers guiding you throughout the beekeeping year Moon's Bee World, a Monthly Periodical Devoted to Bee Culture, 1876

Case, Agreement, and their Interactions András Bárány, Laura Kalin, 2020-06-22 Differential argument marking has been a hot topic in linguistics for several decades both because it is cross linguistically widespread and because it raises essential questions at multiple levels of grammar including the relationship between abstract processes and overt morphological marking between case and agreement and between syntax and information structure This volume provides an introduction into the current state of the art of research on differential case marking and chapters by leading linguists addressing theoretical questions in a wide range of typologically and geographically diverse languages from the Indo European Sinitic Turkic and Uralic families The chapters engage with current theoretical issues in the morphology syntax semantics and processing of differential argument marking A central issue addressed by all the authors is the adequacy of various theoretical approaches in modelling different varieties of differential case marking such as those determined by topicality those driven by cumulative factors and those that involve double marking The volume will be of interest to students and researchers working on cross linguistic variation in differential marking and its theoretical modelling

Fire Management Notes, 1992 Angles of Object Agreement Andrew Nevins, Anita Peti-Stantic, Mark de Vos, Jana Willer-Gold, 2022-11-17 This volume draws on insights from a range of theoretical perspectives to explore objects agreement and their intersecting angles based on novel data from multiple language families The recent expansion of agreement theories has revealed new ways of integrating phenomena that affect objects and their relational and featural properties with conventional object markers under a single agreement umbrella The contributions to this book present the major advances in these new angles of research into object agreement and highlight in particular the shared conditions on objects undergoing agreement that are attested in a large number of genetically unrelated languages and language modalities Following a detailed introduction the chapters are organized into four parts that explore respectively the mechanics of object agreement constraints on symmetry features of object agreement and issues relating to the left periphery The volume's findings and the novel questions that they raise will be of interest to theoretical linguists typologists sign language researchers and anyone working on the theoretical analysis of Amazonian Bantu Romance Semitic and Slavic languages
