The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia

Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Krementsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally, mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals, leaders and reformers throughout history. This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century. The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here. The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology, medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction, dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects, sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs. With contributions from scholars based in the United States, Canada, the UK, Germany and Russia, the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex, contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere. In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union, this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions, their often obscure origins, acclaimed and forgotten champions, unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations. In short, the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind.

The case for modern man, 1959 Myth and Metaphysics W.A. Luijpen, 2012-12-06 This book is an attempt to interpret man's religious existence an interpretation for which some of the groundwork was laid by the author's book PHENOMENOLOGY AND ATHEISM Duquesne University Press 2nd impression 1965. That work explored the denial of God by the leading atheists and came to terms with the most typical forms assumed by their denials. Nevertheless I am not an adherent of atheism. The reason why it is possible to agree with many atheists without becoming one of them is that man can misunderstand his own religiousness or lapse into an inauthentic form of being a believer. What many atheists unmask is one or the other form of pseudo religiousness which should be unmasked. On the other hand I have also constantly refused to identify religiousness with such inauthentic forms and to define it in terms of those forms just as I refuse to identify the appendix with appendicitis the heart with an infarct the psyche as a disturbance and marriage as a fight The book offered here has been written since the rise of the radical God is dead theology This theology without God has often been presented as the only form of theological thought still suitable for modern man As the reader will notice I reject the brash facility with which some modern men measure the relevance of anything by its modernity
