Child of Exile: A Poetry Memoir Carolina Hospital, 2004-03-31 The pain comes not from nostalgia I write because I cannot remember at all Carolina Hospital explains in her poem Dear T a Hospital's poetry becomes the art of tracing her journey through exile and across both psychological and cultural borders Hospital left Cuba as a child accompanying her parents seeking refuge in the U S Her creative act of recall in poems written between 1983 and 2003 the formative years in the poet's life chronicles her search for meaning and identity as a woman and a Latina living in the U S Hospital unravels the world around her the hyphenated man the vendors outside of the Jos Marti YMCA in Miami the rafters who chart violent waters for a dream and her own family and friends With stunning and sharp beauty Hospital's poems conjure a community caught between conflicting myths and cultures She spins a wide range of themes love and betrayal motherhood and sacrifice creation and the quest for faith and loss of communication In the end this poetry memoir provides consolation for it is in the common condition of exile and yearning to belong that we connect as human beings A Companion to US Latino

Literatures Carlota Caulfield, Darién J. Davis, 2007 A panorama of literature by Latinos whether born or resident in the United States One Island, Many Voices Eduardo del Rio, 2008-10 Cuban American writers have been studied primarily within the context of Latino literature as a whole Seeing a need to distinguish and define this unique literary perspective Eduardo del Rio selected twelve important well known authors and conducted interviews He chose writers who were born in Cuba but have lived in the United States for a significant amount of time and whose works include themes he considers elemental to Cuban American literature identity duality memory and exile But rather than a cohesive homogeneous group these conversations unveiled a kaleidoscope of individuality style and motive The authors bonds to Cuba inform their creative work in vastly different ways and attempts to categorize their similarities only highlight the range of character and experience within this assemblage of talented writers From playwright Dolores Prida to author and literary critic Gustavo P rez Firmat these voices run the gamut of both genre and personality In addition to the essential facts of literary accomplishment the interviews include a wealth of insight into each writer's history motivations concerns and relationship to language These personal details serve to humanize and illuminate the unique circumstances and realities that have shaped both the authors and their work What del Rio has ultimately brought together is a series of intimate sketches that will not only serve as an important reference for any discussion of the literature but will also help readers to develop for themselves a sense of what Cuban American writing is and what it is not CONTENTS Preface Acknowledgments Introduction Nilo Cruz Roberto Fernandez Cristina Garcia Carolina Hospital Eduardo Machado Dionisio Martinez Pablo Medina Achy Obejas Ricardo Pau Llosa Gustavo P rez Firmat Dolores Prida Virgil Suarez Epilogue Notes Bibliography Index The Children's Poetry Book, 1868 Phoebe, 2004 From January to December.
