The Childs Right To Education:

Children's Rights in Education Stuart N. Hart,2001 Providing perspectives insights and recommendations this is a comprehensive overview of the current state of children s rights and education around the world Written by experts in their fields the book includes chapters on national accountability how international standards can be implemented the rights of children with special needs respecting children s views in education education and democracy how the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child can be implemented This authoritative and thought provoking volume will be essential reading for anyone involved in or concerned about the rights of children in education around the world

Children's Rights from International Educational Perspectives Jenna Gillett-Swan,Nina Thelander,2021-12-01 This book critically examines contemporary educational practices with a children s rights lens Through investigating the factors that contribute to or hinder the realisation of children s rights in and through education in different contexts it discusses how using a rights framework for education furthers the agenda for achieving international educational aims and goals Using diverse international examples the book provides a snapshot of the complexity of children s rights and education It draws on the expertise of international research teams from Australia England Finland Italy Mexico Poland Portugal Scotland Spain Sweden Switzerland and the United States and highlights wide ranging interpretations of the same mandate across different national contexts Beginning with a critical overview of the broader context of children s rights in education the book explores obligations for States and their representatives tensions and convergences in implementation and implications for teaching and learning Using underutilised educational and theoretical concepts it contributes to broadening understandings of children s rights education and associated theoretical frameworks Despite a human rights framework emphasising the indivisibility interrelatedness and interconnectedness of all rights the right to education Article 28 dominates discussions about children s rights and education As such equally important rights including the aims of education Article 29 are often less considered or absent from the conversation Recognising that children s education rights involve more than just access and provision this book advocates for a much broader understanding of the nuances underpinning children s education related rights Chapter 10 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Children's Rights, Educational Research and the UNCRC Jenna Gillett-Swan,Vicki Coppock,2016-03-01

Children s Rights Educational Research and the UNCRC provides international perspectives on contemporary issues pertaining to children s rights in education The global context relevance and implications of children s rights educational research and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child UNCRC are explored from multiple perspectives Since the development of the UNCRC over 25 years ago significant changes have occurred in the way that children s rights are considered conceptualised and enacted Even so there remains a continued debate surrounding the extent to which the children s rights agenda is embraced within education as researchers teachers and other educational professionals continue to consider the degree to which the UNCRC informs practice This book provides critical and focused discussion on the challenges of enacting children's rights in educational research contexts and alerts readers to the ways in which children's rights provide a provocation to think and practise differently Chapter contributions from scholars in Australia Finland Portugal Sweden and the United Kingdom provide diverse contexts from which subsequent educational and research practice can be derived Each chapter problematises different aspects of children's rights within the context of educational research with both broad and specific wide ranging implications and provides examples of different ways that these aspects are considered in practice

The Child's Right to Education, 1979 Human Rights Law and Personal Identity Jill

Marshall, 2014-06-20 This book explores the role human rights law plays in the formation and protection of our personal identities Drawing from a range of disciplines Jill Marshall examines how human rights law includes and excludes specific types of identity which feed into moral norms of human freedom and human dignity and their translation into legal rights The book takes on a three part structure Part I traces the definition of identity and follows the evolution of and protects a right to personal identity and personality within human rights law It specifically examines the development of a right to personal identity as property the inter subjective nature of identity and the intercession of power and inequality Part II evaluates past and contemporary attempts to describe the core of personal identity including theories concerning the soul the rational mind and the growing influence of neuroscience and genetics in explaining what it means to be human It also explores the inter relation and conflict between universal principles and culturally specific rights Part III focuses on issues and case law that can be interpreted as allowing self determination Marshall argues that while in an age of individual identity people are increasingly obliged to live in conformed ways pushing out identities that do not fit with what is acceptable Drawing on feminist theory the book concludes by arguing how human rights law would be better interpreted as a force to enable respect for human dignity and freedom interpreted as empowerment and self determination whilst acknowledging our inter subjective identities In drawing on socio legal philosophical biological and feminist outlooks this book is truly interdisciplinary and will be of great interest and use to scholars and students of human rights law legal and social theory gender and cultural studies education into legislation policies and programs for the attainment of education for all. The text is illustrated by case examples from a variety of countries. Several appendices are also included to provide background information and elaborate on issues raised in the framework including standards on child participation, human rights education and international goals and commitments. Publisher's description: The Child and the Book: a Manual of Method, for Sunday School Teachers and Other Religious Instructors. ... Second Thousand Robert DUNNING (and HASSELL (Joseph)), 1871. Education in the Best Interests of the Child Robert Brian Howe, Katherine Covell, 2013-01-01. A large body of research in disciplines from sociology and policy studies to neuroscience and educational psychology has confirmed that socioeconomic status remains the most powerful influence on children's educational outcomes. Socially disadvantaged children around the world disproportionately suffer from lower levels of educational achievement which in turn leads to unfavourable long term outcomes in employment and health. Education in the Best Interests of the Child addresses this persistent problem which violates not only the principle of equal educational opportunity but also the broader principle of the best interests of the child as called for in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. Building on the children's rights work accomplished in their previous book Empowering Children Brian Howe and Katherine Covell identify three types of reform that can significantly close the educational achievement gap. Their findings make an important argument for stronger and more comprehensive action to equalize educational opportunities for disadvantaged children. A School for Children with Rights Thomas Hammarberg, 1998. Noting that in both developing and developed nations schools may be found that do not reflect the vision of the United Nations Convention on Rights of the Child this report examines the articles of the Convention dealing with education and discusses their implications for the development of educational policy. The report describes articles in the Convention dealing specifically with education. 1 Article 28 defines education as a right and recommends steps for this right to be achieved progressively and on the basis of equal opportunity and 2 Article 29 addresses the purpose of school education. Articles delineating general principles of the Convention are also described relating to nondiscrimination, best interests of the child, rights to life, survival and development and view of the child. The report maintains that the general principles outline a direction for progressive educational reform and analyzes eight areas of potential reform: 1 universal access to basic education, 2 equal opportunities, 3 the appropriate content of education, 4 cultural roots and global values, 5 new methods of learning, 6 mutual respect, 7 pupil participation and 8 the role of teachers, parents and the community. The report further examines differences in implementation of educational changes in developing nations, discusses the problems of inadequate resources and notes that development has to start from the local community. The report concludes by asserting that although the global long term trend is to give education more priority it is not certain that the movement will be toward schooling in the spirit of the Convention. However the Convention has the potential to make a unique contribution in every

Conflict and Poverty in Africa Ebenezer Durojaye, Gladys

Mirugi-Mukundi, John-Mark Iyi, Usang Maria Assim, 2025-02-17 The contributors to this book examine the conceptual issues relating to the link between conflict and poverty as well as presenting case studies of countries often regarded as hot spots for conflict in Africa. They also explore the roles of regional and sub regional bodies and institutions in addressing the causes of poverty and mitigating the impacts of conflict on vulnerable and marginalized groups. Africa is often regarded as the epicentre of conflicts worldwide. Virtually every part of the continent is currently engulfed in one form of conflict or another. Beyond the loss of life conflicts have brought untold hardship to millions and have derailed social and economic development on the continent. Written by African academics this book is divided into three sections the first of which discusses the factors that fuel conflicts and the nature and impacts of conflicts on vulnerable groups. The second section comprises case studies of South Sudan, Central African Republic, Nigeria, Ethiopia, South Africa, Uganda, and Cameroon. These countries are representative of the sub regional dynamics of Africa west, east, central, and south reflecting the diversity of the continent. The final section examines the role of key institutions and bodies in Africa in mitigating the impact of conflict on the socioeconomic lives of the people in the region. Bodies discussed include the African Union, Economic Community of West African States, Southern African Development Community, and the East African Community. The book will be an invaluable resource for researchers, academics, and policymakers working in the areas of law, political science, human rights, peace studies, development studies, and African studies.

Sri Sathya Sai Media Centre, 2022-11-09 Started in 1958, Sanathana Sarathi is a monthly magazine devoted to Sathya Truth, Dharma, Righteousness, Shanti, Peace, and Prema. Love, the four cardinal principles of Bhagawan Baba's philosophy. It is published from Prasanthi Nilayam, the Abode of Highest Peace, and acts as a mouthpiece of Baba's Ashram as it speaks of the important events that take place in His sacred Abode besides carrying Divine Messages conveyed through Divine Discourses of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. The word meaning of Sanathana Sarathi is the Eternal Charioteer. It signifies the presence of the Lord in every being as the atma guiding their lives like a charioteer. It implies that he who places his life, the body being likened to a chariot, in an attitude of surrender in the hands of the Lord will be taken care of by the Lord even as a charioteer would take the occupant of his chariot safely to its destination. The magazine is an instrument to disseminate spiritual knowledge for the moral, physical, and mental uplift of humanity without any discrimination as the subject matter discussed therein is always of common interest and of universal appeal. The fifteen Vahinis streams of sacredness known as the Vahini Series comprising annotation and interpretation of the Upanishads and other scriptures, Itihasas like the Ramayana, the Bhagavatha, and the Mahabharata, and authentic explanations on Dhyana Dharma, Prema, etc. have been serially published in this magazine as and when they emanated from the Divine pen of Bhagawan Baba. The Nordic Theory of Everything Anu Partanen,2017-10-27 From childcare to healthcare provision for the elderly and tackling issues of homelessness the Nordic countries are world leaders in organising society no wonder Finland has been ranked among the happiest places in the world But when Finnish journalist Anu Partanen moved to America she quickly realised that navigating the basics of everyday life was overly complicated compared to how society was organised in her homeland From the complications of buying a mobile to the arduous task of filing taxes she knew there was a better way and as she got to know her new neighbours she discovered that they too shared her deep apprehensions The Nordic Theory of Everything details Partanen's mission to understand why America and much of the Western world suffers from so much inequality and struggling social services Filled with fascinating insights advice and practical solutions she makes a convincing argument that we can rebuild society rekindle optimism and become more autonomous people by following in the footsteps of our neighbours to the North
