The Chilterns Landscape ,1992 Methods of Environmental Impact Assessment Peter Morris,Riki Therivel,2001
Written by experts this text deals with how environmental impact assessment should be carried out for specific environmental components such as air and water Landscapes at Risk? Edward Holdaway,Gerald Smart,2013-07-04 The purpose of this book is to examine the role that Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty AONB have in the protection of the landscape The authors draw upon experience in the UK and abroad Proceedings of Our National Landscape ,1979

Proceedings of Our National Landscape Gary H. Elsner,1979 Contains highlights of new developments in managing and maintaining the attractiveness of wildland landscapes A Manual for the Assessment of Major Development

Welsh Office,1981 Peasant Perceptions of Landscape Stephen Milesen,Stuart Brookes,2021-11-04 Peasant Perceptions of Landscape marks a change in the discipline of landscape history as well as making a major contribution to the history of everyday life Until now there has been no sustained analysis of how ordinary medieval and early modern people experienced and perceived their material environment and constructed their identities in relation to the places where they lived This volume provides exactly such an analysis by examining peasant perceptions in one geographical area over the long period from AD 500 to 1650 The study takes as its focus Ewelme hundred a well documented and archaeologically rich area of lowland vale and hilly Chiltern wood pasture comprising fourteen ancient parishes The analysis draws on a range of sources including legal depositions and thousands of field names and bynames preserved in largely unpublished deeds and manorial documents Archaeology makes a major contribution particularly for understanding the period before 900 but more generally in reconstructing the fabric of villages and the framework for inhabitants spatial practices and experiences In its focus on the way inhabitants interacted with the landscape in which they worked prayed and socialised Peasant Perceptions of Landscape supplies a new history of the lives and attitudes of the bulk of the rural population who so seldom make their mark in traditional landscape analysis or documentary history Landscape Assessment of the Chilterns - the Role of GIS in Landscape Assessment Using Land Use

Dawson,2000 The valley of the Great Ouse in Bedfordshire is an area of rich but diminishing archaeological resources This volume draws together for the first time current archaeological work in the area in an attempt to characterise the regions distinct but previously unrecognised archaeological identity With synthetic surveys of specific landscape areas and short case studies it effectively captures the character of the region s archaeology whilst highlighting both areas of theoretical concern in understanding the region s past and areas of methodological concern in developing effective ways of exploring that past within the constraints of current archaeological practice At a time when the formulation of research frameworks is increasingly seen as an important element in shaping the direction of future archaeological work this volume will provide the framework for defining future research Farm Business Data ,1996 ECOS ,1992
