Our souls were created to be healed become whole and healthy Often when we enter this life we come in with a pure soul however many times our souls are exposed to trauma when we are exposed to families Our souls are exposed to generational trauma trauma when our fathers leave us when we get hurt from early relationships and from undesired sex from partner Whether we get hurt intentionally or unintentionally our souls encounter trauma In order for you to be healed and be able to function in this thing called life as a healed healthy and whole individual you have to go through the healing process To encounter healing you will first need to find out if you have trauma in your soul I have put together this book for you to learn the depth of the healing your inner soul requires and how your soul affects the mind and body In this book you will also find out the deceptions of the soul from the enemy through the trauma and the truth of the power of healing the soul You will discover who you are and what you are purposed for as well as find the inner healing your soul was created to yearn for
