The Mirage In Iran Abu Ameenah Bilal Philips, 1984      The Mirage in Iran Ahmad Afghānī, 1987      Getting Ready for a Nuclear-ready Iran Henry D. Sokolski, Patrick Clawson, 2005      Getting Ready for Nuclear-Ready Iran, 2005

Little more than a year ago the Nonproliferation Policy Education Center NPEC completed its initial analysis of Iran's nuclear program. Checking Iran's Nuclear Ambitions. Since then Tehran's nuclear activities and public diplomacy have only affirmed what this analysis first suggested: Iran is not about to give up its effort to make nuclear fuel and thereby come within days of acquiring a nuclear bomb. Iran's continued pursuit of uranium enrichment and plutonium recycling puts a premium on asking what a more confident nuclear-ready Iran might confront us with and what we might do now to hedge against these threats. These questions are the focus of this volume. The book is divided into four parts. The first presents the findings of the NPEC's working group on Iran. It reflects interviews with government officials and outside specialists and the work of some 20 regional security experts whom NPEC convened in Washington to discuss the commissioned research that is contained in this book. Some of this report's findings to keep Iran and others from overtly deploying nuclear weapons or leaving the Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty (NPT) are beginning to gain official support. The U.S. Government, the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) and an increasing number of allies now support the idea that states that violate the NPT be held accountable for their transgressions even if they should withdraw from the treaty. There also has been increased internal governmental discussion about the need to clarify what should be permitted under the rubric of peaceful nuclear energy as delineated under the NPT. The remaining report recommendations, which were presented in testimony before Congress in March of 2005, remain to be acted upon.

Mirage in Iran Dr. Ahmad-Al-Afghani, A. R. M. Zarook,      Operation Rising Lion Joseph Ejike Ojhi, In the early hours before dawn sirens wailed and the world changed. Operation Rising Lion takes readers inside Israel's stunning preemptive strike against Iran's nuclear program, revealing why waiting was no longer an option. This gripping book explains how years of deception stalled diplomacy and secret weaponization pushed the Middle East to the edge of catastrophe. With vivid detail and clear reasoning, Joseph Ejike Ojhi, Ph.D., shows how Iran crossed the nuclear red line, why Israel acted alone, and how global powers quietly recalculated. From underground bunkers to silent war rooms, from oil markets in panic to leaders weighing survival itself, this book exposes the moment the world nearly lost control. This is not speculation. It is a warning. If Israel had not struck first, the cost could have been unimaginable.

Iran's Nuclear Ambitions Shahram Chubin, 2006. Iran is aggressively seeking nuclear technology that could be used for making weapons, and its quest has set off alarms throughout the world. This widespread concern stems in part from Iran's uncertain intentions and recent history. Will it remain a revolutionary power determined to subvert its Sunni Arab neighbors, destroy Israel, and spread theocratic government to other lands? Or would an Iran with nuclear weapons merely defend its territory from foreign aggression and live in peace with its neighbors? Are the country's leaders and society willing to negotiate limits on nuclear capability and normalize relations with the West or will they resist accommodation Iran's Nuclear Ambitions provides a rare balanced look into the motivations perceptions and domestic politics swirling around Iran Shahram Chubin an Iranian born security expert details the recent history of Iran's nuclear program and diplomacy He argues that the central problem is not nuclear technology but rather Iran's behavior as a revolutionary state with ambitions that collide with the interests of its neighbors and the West Topics include The view from Tehran Iran's nuclear energy rationale domestic politics and decisionmaking Sources of concern including the nature of Iran's regime its nuclear infrastructure missile development and terrorism Iran's negotiating strategy The international response Iran and regional security including the U S as a threat and rival Iran's regional ambitions and Israel Policy options
