The Mirage:

The Mirage, 1886 The Mirage 2009, 阿拉伯语 阿拉伯语 A psychological study of the first order with a subtly Freudian flavor The Mirage is the autobiographical account of Kamil Ru ba a tortured soul who finds himself struggling unduly to cope with life's challenges The internal torment and angst that dog him throughout his life and the tragic ironic turns of events that overtake him as a young man are to a great extent the outworkings of his faulty upbringing At the same time they work together to drive home the novel's underlying theme the illusory undependable nature of the world in which we live and the call to seek beyond the outward and the ephemeral that which is inward and enduring The narrative full of pathos draws the reader unwittingly into a vicarious experience of Kamil's agonies and ecstasies As such it is a specimen of Mahfouz's prose at its finest The Mirage of International Criminal Law Farhad Malekian, 2018-10-01 This book explores from various perspectives Kant's codex of the categorical imperative and the supreme principle of morality in juxtaposition with the monopolisation of the rules of international criminal law Kant's reference to the term propensity to evil in human nature is a much more serious iniquity universally in the nature of the Security Council than the concepts of a mens rea and actus reus in criminal law His decisive warning foreshadows that the inclinations towards self interest self love and intent in collective mens rea within the resolutions of the Security Council prevent states from striving towards the supreme maxim of a genuine international moral worth The idea of international criminal law is thus viewed as a mirage Essentially certain rules of the United Nations Charter the system of international criminal justice human rights law and humanitarian law like a fata morgana are crucial if unattainable The permanent members of the Security Council are deceiving the world by propagating a variety of excuses with the core objective of economic gain This book will be of interest to anyone enthusiastic about positive law the nature of criminal justice classical moral philosophy politics and economics The mirage of life, by the author of the 'Three questions.
