Kumar, 2002-09-11 Multinational enterprises play a vital role in the economic activity of most developing countries In India MNE affiliates dominate whole sectors of industry such as plastics and pharmaceuticals characterised by a high degree of product differentiation complex technology and high skill intensity Such advantages combined with intangible assets centralised decision making and global outlook lead to a divergence of approach between MNEs and their local counterparts in host developing countries This book analyses the inter industry pattern of MNEs in India in the framework of the internationalisation theory also examining the comparative behaviour of MNE affiliates and LCEs in terms of conduct and performance The book goes further to explain the different performance of these two strategic groups by assessing profit and export Multinational Enterprises and the Challenge of Sustainable Development John R. McIntyre, Silvester

Ivanaj, Vera Ivanaj, 2009-01-01 Transnational corporations play a role in the design diffusion and consolidation of sustainable development in the context of globalization and multinational firms In this timely book European and American contributors analyze this role and explore the complex and dynamic phenomena of economic political cultural and legal interactions involved In order to understand this interplay the authors examine the practices and organizational behaviors used by multinationals in sustainable development They also discuss the evolving concepts that multinationals hold about sustainable development and corporate social responsibility and how companies reaffirm these philosophies through their strategy and organizational practices such as human resource development marketing supply chain information technology law and communications The authors outline an approach to help identify the key details and motivating factors in decision making Scholars students and policy analysts in the fields of business ecology economic development and developmental economics and consultants focusing in corporate planning and strategic analysis will find this original collection of great value the development of linkages with the local economy These are measured against the initial cost of the incentive package for establishing and maintaining the zones Questions related to working conditions and labour relations are also highlighted The book confronts a number of widely held assumptions with the available facts and figures and points to the possible evolution of EPZs in the economies of newly industrializing countries It envisages the emergence of the export processing country and a more open and competitive approach to industrial development
